FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

All statements contained in this Prospectus that are not statements of historical fact constitute forward- looking statements. All statements regarding our expected financial condition and results of operations, business, plans, and prospects are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include statements with respect to our business strategy, our revenue and profitability, our projects and other matters discussed in this Prospectus regarding matters that are not historical facts. Investors can generally identify forward-looking statements by the use of terminology such as “aim”, “anticipate”, “believe”, “expect”, “estimate”, “intend”, “objective”, “plan”, “project”, “may”, “will”, “will continue”, “will pursue”, “contemplate”, “future”, “goal”, “propose”, “will likely result”, “will seek to” or other words or phrases of similar import. All forward-looking statements (whether made by us or any third party) are predictions and are subject to risks, uncertainties, and assumptions about us that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the relevant forward-looking statement.

Forward-looking statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are not a guarantee of future performance. These statements are based on our management’s beliefs and assumptions, which in turn are based on currently available information. Although we believe the assumptions upon which these forward-looking statements are based are reasonable, any of these assumptions could prove to be inaccurate, and the forward-looking statements based on these assumptions could be incorrect.

Further the actual results may differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements due to risks or uncertainties associated with our expectations with respect to, but not limited to, regulatory changes pertaining to the industries in India in which our Company operates and our ability to respond to them, our ability to successfully implement our strategy, our growth and expansion, technological changes, our exposure to market risks, general economic and political conditions in India and overseas which have an impact on our business activities or investments, the monetary and fiscal policies of India and other jurisdictions in which we operate, inflation, deflation, unanticipated volatility in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices or other rates or prices, the performance of the financial markets in India and globally, changes in domestic laws, regulations and taxes, changes in competition in our industry and incidence of any natural calamities and/or acts of violence.

Certain important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our Company’s expectations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- We have a history of net loss in the Fiscal Year 2021, and we anticipate increased expenses in the future.;
- We currently operate two manufacturing facilities, located at Noida & Greater Noida. Any slowdown or disruption in our manufacturing operations in any of our manufacturing facilities could have a material and adverse impact on our business operations and financial performance.

- If there are delays or if the costs of setting up and the possible time or cost overruns related to the expansion of the Unit-II or the purchase of plant and machinery for the said Unit-II are higher than expected, it could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations and growth prospects.
- We may not be able to sustain historical growth in our revenue from operations and profit for year in future periods which could have an adverse impact on our financial condition and results of operation.
- Under-utilization of capacity of our manufacturing facilities and an inability to effectively utilize our manufacturing facilities may have an adverse effect on our business and future financial performance.
- Demand for our products is related to growth and trends of our end user industry. Decline in sales of our customers may adversely affect the demand for our products which in turn would adversely impact our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.
- If our customers dispute or default on their payment obligations to us, we may be subject to adverse cash flows and may be required to spend significant amounts in recovering amounts due, in turn adversely impacting our cash flows, results of operations and future prospects.

- We do not have long-term agreements with our suppliers for raw materials, and an inability to procure the desired quality, quantity of our raw materials in a timely manner and at reasonable costs, or at all, may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

For further discussions of factors that could cause our actual results to differ, please refer the section titled “Risk Factors” and chapter titled “Our Business” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” beginning on page 27, 148, and 215 of this Prospectus, respectively. Summary of our Industry

Electricity distribution companies (DISCOMs) are the backbone of the country’s power sector. Their poor financial health can have a ripple effect on the efficient functioning of the electricity generation and transmission sector. For India’s growth momentum to stay intact, the efficient functioning of all three is crucial. According to International Monetary Fund (IMF) estimates, its gross domestic product (GDP) could grow by 6.3% in the fiscal year (FY) 2025. The Central Electricity Authority’s (CEA) Optimal Generation Mix report for 2029-30 projects a peak electricity demand of 334.8 gigawatts (GW) and electrical energy requirement of 2,279.7 billion units (BU) for 2029-30. To meet this demand, India needs to add 777.1GW of capacity, including 251.7GW of coal and lignite, 292.7GW of solar photovoltaic, 99.9GW of wind and 53.8GW of hydro.

However, the application did not meet the criteria outlined in Regulation 300 of the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, as Mr. Bharat Bhushan Jindal is an immediate relative of the promoter, and the sole basis for seeking exemption is strained family ties and his reluctance to be classified as part of the promoter group. Internal Risk Factors

- 1. We have a history of net loss in the Fiscal Year 2021, and we anticipate increased expenses in the future. Any failure to increase our revenue sufficiently to keep pace with our initiatives, investments, and other expenses could prevent us from achieving profitability or positive cash flow on a consistent basis in future periods.

In the Fiscal Year of 2021, our Company experienced a net loss of ₹198.37 Lacs, primarily attributed to the ongoing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. This global crisis significantly disrupted our sales and turnover, leading to a downturn in our financial performance for the year. Looking ahead to future Fiscal Years, we anticipate a rise in operating expenses as Company’s embark on strategic initiatives to expand Unit-II. This expansion entails the acquisition of new machinery, increasing operational capacities and infrastructure, and an augmentation of our marketing and promotional endeavours. These initiatives may be more costly than we expect and may not result in increased net revenue. In addition, when we become a listed company, we will incur additional significant legal, accounting, and other expenses that we did not incur as an unlisted company. Any failure to increase our net revenue sufficiently to keep pace with our initiatives, investments, and other expenses could prevent us from achieving profitability or positive cash flow on a consistent basis in future periods.

If we are unable to successfully address these risks and challenges as we encounter them, our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected. If we are unable to generate adequate revenue growth and manage our expenses and cash flows, we may continue to incur significant losses in the future.

- 2. We currently operate two manufacturing facilities, located at Noida & Greater Noida. Any slowdown or disruption in our manufacturing operations in any of our manufacturing facilities could have a material and adverse impact on our business operations and financial performance.

We currently operate two manufacturing facilities located at Noida & Greater Noida with commercial production of CRGO & CRNGO steel cores with applications in transformers, UPS & inverters. Any disruption in our manufacturing operations involving the shutdown of our plant in any of our manufacturing facilities resulting from any factors beyond our control, including socio-economic, regulatory, policy or political developments, force majeure, natural calamities, or civil disruption, could result in a material adverse impact on our business operations and financial performance, particularly due to the long period of time required for rebuilding to resume production. Further, there can be no assurance that equipment in our manufacturing facilities will not malfunction, resulting in discontinuation of production. Any malfunction or shutdown of any of the plant would adversely impact production and could result in us incurring significant losses from shutdown of operations, capital expenditure to replace any malfunctioning furnace or other equipment, and thereby materially and adversely affecting our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

In the past, we have faced certain disruptions in our manufacturing facility located. For example, as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic lockdown and other related restrictions, our business operations experienced disruption for the Fiscal 2021. Consequently, our sales, and turnover dwindled, ultimately leading to a net loss of ₹198.37 Lacs in Fiscal 2021. In addition, in the Fiscal 2021 we experienced utilization issues in both units of production primarily on account of delayed supply of raw materials due to the COVID-19 lockdown there, which impacted and delayed our production, capacity utilization, all of which ultimately affected the sales, and delayed its respective payment from the clientele. However, disruptions due to COVID-19 did not have a material impact on our financial condition in Fiscal 2022, 2023 and 2024.

The table below provides our actual production and capacity utilization as of/ for the financial years ended March 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022:

Particulars	For the Fiscal Years ended March 31
	2024		2023		2022
	Actual Production (Metric Tons per annum)	Capacity Utilization (%)*	Actual Production (Metric Tons per annum)	Capacity Utilization (%)*	Actual Production (Metric Tons per annum)	Capacity Utilization (%)*
Unit I	5,594	85.00%	4,491	68.00%	3,049	46.00%
Unit II	3,795	80.00%	2,917	61.00%	2,642	56.00%
Total Combined	9,389	83.00%	7,408	65.00%	5,691	51.00%

*As certified Ocean Tech Engineering Consultancy Service vide their certificate dated Wednesday, August 14, 2024.

Our business is therefore dependent on our ability to ensure continued operations and production at optimal levels, which may be impacted by various operating risks, including industrial accidents, severe weather conditions as CRGO steel is sensitive to water and moisture, natural disasters, workforce productivity, regulatory developments and compliance, adequate and timely supply of raw materials, management of continuous operations, quality of products manufactured. Any significant malfunction or breakdown of our equipment may also entail significant repair and maintenance costs and cause delays in our operations. However, as on date of this Prospectus, there has been no instance of significant malfunction or breakdown of our equipment in the past. Further, we depend on third party suppliers of raw materials as well as equipment and services required for continuing operations. Our inability to effectively rectify any disruption, in a timely manner and at an acceptable cost, could lead to delays in the entire production cycle and an inability to comply with our clients' requirements, thereby adversely impacting our business operations and future financial performance.

3. We do not have any long-term agreements with our customers. If our customers choose not to source their requirements from us or manufacture such products in-house, our business and results of operations may be adversely affected.

We do not have firm commitment long-term supply agreements with our customers and instead rely on short term purchase orders to govern terms of our sales of products, from our customers. Many of the purchase orders specify a price per unit delivery schedule, and the quantities to be delivered. However, certain customers, particularly the public sector undertakings, initiate the procurement processes following acceptance of the tenders, typically through rate contracts which are usually valid for a period of 6 months to 1 year. Yet, if the quantities are to be determined closer to the date of delivery, then there may be a possibility for such orders to be amended or cancelled prior to finalization, and should such an amendment or cancellation take place, it may adversely impact our revenue and production schedules. As of the date of this Prospectus, there have been no instances of any amendments or cancellations.

We are dependent on certain of our key customers and the details of contribution of our top five and top 10 customers to our total revenue from operations for the Fiscals 2024, 2023 and 2022, have been set out below.

Particulars of Customers	Restated Financial Information for the Financial Year Ended March 31
	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations
Top 5	12,625.29	41.71%	9,446.00	38.30%	6,072.67	42.99%
Top 10	17,337.22	57.27%	13,611.00	55.18%	7,994.14	56.59%

Additionally, certain customers have high and stringent standards for product quantity and quality as well as delivery schedules. Any failure to meet our customers' expectations and specifications could result in the cancellation or non-renewal of purchase orders. There are also a number of factors, other than our performance that could cause the loss of a customer. Customers may demand, among others, price reductions, setoff any payment obligations, require indemnification for themselves or their affiliates, change their outsourcing strategy by moving more work in-house, or replace their existing products with alternative products, any of which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. As of the date of this Prospectus, there have been no such instances in the past.

Accordingly, we face the risk that our customers might not place any order or may even cancel existing orders or make change in their policies which may result in reduced quantities being manufactured by us for our customers. Cancellations, reductions, or instructions to delay production (thereby delaying delivery of products manufactured by us) by a significant customer could adversely affect our results of operations by reducing our sales volume, as well as by possibly causing delay in our customers' paying us for the order placed for purchasing the inventory with us which we would have manufactured for them. We do not find customers or purchasers for the surplus or excess capacity; in which case we would be forced to incur a loss. As of the date of this Prospectus, there have been no such instances of cancellation of an existing order or in instructions to delay production the past.

Further, in the event our major customers face any form of adverse effect due to exigent circumstances, resulting in a sustained decline in the demand for their products, could prompt them to reduce their production volumes, in turn affecting their demand for our products. The volume and timing of sales to our major customers may also adversely vary due to variation in: (i) delay in or cancellation; (ii) demand or requirements; (iii) manufacturing strategy; and (iv) growth strategy. As we do not have firm commitment in the form of long-term supply agreements with our customers, there is no commitment on the part of our major customers to continue to place new purchase orders with us and as a result, our cash flow and consequent revenue may fluctuate significantly from time to time. Further, we may not find any other customers for the surplus or excess capacity, in which case we may be forced to incur a loss.

In addition, we make significant decisions, encompassing the determination of desired business levels, raw material procurement strategies, capacity utilization plans, production schedules, manpower allocation, and other resource requirements. These decisions are predicated on our estimates of customer orders over a time horizon spanning from one to four months. The changes in demand for their products (which are in turn manufactured by us) could reduce our ability to estimate accurately future customer requirements, make it difficult to schedule production and limit our ability to maximize utilization of our manufacturing capacity.

Additional risks that could significantly harm our customers as well as us, include:

- action undertaken by the government to tax our business, or that of our customers;
- recession in countries in which our key customers operate their businesses;
- slowdown and reduced spending in the industries in which our customers operate;
- our customers' inability to effectively manage their operations;
- a change in their management which may results in us not being a preferred supplier to them; and
- changes in laws affecting our customers to operate profitably.

4. If there are delays or if the costs of setting up and the possible time or cost overruns related to the expansion of the Unit-II or the purchase of plant and machinery for the said Unit-II are higher than expected, it could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations and growth prospects.

We are currently in the process of expanding our existing premises at Unit-II, which involves investing in infrastructure development, acquiring new machinery, and establishing a laboratory. The new manufacturing facility is already installed in Unit-II. Plant & machinery is currently in the process of being installed and commissioned. Following the completion, Unit-II is projected to commence commercial operations by the 3rd quarter of Fiscal Year 2025. Utilizing the same premises for this expansion is anticipated to boost production and sales, leading to improve per-unit costs and the realization of economies of scale, thereby enhancing profit margins.

At present, Plant and machinery is being installed and commissioned in the new facility. However, we cannot guarantee that the performance of these external agencies will meet the required specifications or performance parameters. Furthermore, the timely identification of suitable replacement external agencies may pose challenges. In the event of inadequate performance by these agencies, there could be additional costs and delays. Securing necessary financing within the expected timeframe also remains uncertain.

Additionally, some of the plant, machinery, and equipment required for the expansion may need to be sourced from abroad, adding complexity to procurement and logistics processes. Any delay in the transportation of such assets or damage to the assets acquired due to inter alia defaults by transportation agencies may further result in cost and time overruns. The estimated costs for setting up the plant, machinery and equipment are based on the management's estimates and current conditions which are subject to change, owing to prospective changes in external circumstances, costs and other financial conditions.

There could be delays in setting up the proposed factory unit with the requisite plat and machinery, as a result of, amongst other things, requirement of obtaining approvals from statutory or regulatory authorities, contractors' or external agencies' failure to perform, exchange rate fluctuations, unforeseen engineering problems, disputes with workers, increase in input costs of construction materials and labour costs, incremental preoperative expenses, taxes and duties, interest and finance charges, cost escalation and/ or force majeure events (including the continuing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, geopolitical tensions, etc.), any of which could give rise to cost overruns and delays in our implementation schedules. If the actual capital expenditures on setting up the proposed factory unit significantly exceed our budgets, we may not be able to achieve the intended economic benefits of the proposed factory unit, which in turn may materially and adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and prospects. There can be no assurance that we will be able to complete the aforementioned expansion or commissioning of our plants and additions in accordance with the proposed schedule of implementation and any delay could have an adverse impact on our growth, prospects, cash flows and financial condition. Setting up of the proposed factory unit will require us to obtain various approvals, which are routine in nature. There can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain these registrations and approvals in a timely manner or at all. Further, in the event of any unanticipated delay in receipt of such approvals, the proposed schedule implementation and deployment of the Net Proceeds may be extended or may vary accordingly. For further information, please see the chapter titled "Government and Other Statutory Approvals" on page 247 of this Prospectus."

5. We may not be able to sustain historical growth in our revenue from operations and profit for year in future periods which could have an adverse impact on our financial condition and results of operation.

Set forth below are details of our revenue from operations and profit after tax in the corresponding periods:

	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)
Revenue from Operations	30,290.97	24,666.47	14,125.12
Profit for the year/ period	1,935.27	1,360.00	595.17

For further information, including in relation to revenue from operations and profit after tax see "Management's Analysis and Discussion of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" beginning on page 217 of this Prospectus. A decrease in the demand of our products may result in a decrease in our revenue from operations and profitability. As of the date of this Prospectus, there have been no such instances in the past. We cannot assure you that our growth strategy will continue to be successful or our revenue from operations and profits will continue to increase at the historical rates. Our inability to manage our business, profitability and growth strategy could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

6. Information relating to capacity utilization of our manufacturing facilities included in this Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates. Under-utilization of capacity of our manufacturing facilities and an inability to effectively utilize our manufacturing facilities may have an adverse effect on our business and future financial performance.

Information relating to our capacity utilization of our manufacturing facilities included in this Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates of our management and independent chartered engineer, namely, Ocean Tech Engineering Consultancy Service, including proposed operations, assumptions relating to availability and quality of raw materials, potential utilization levels and operational efficiencies. For further information regarding our manufacturing facilities, including our historical installed capacity and estimated capacity utilization, see “Our Business - Description of our Business and Operations - Manufacturing Facilities” and “Our Business - Description of our Business and Operations – Capacity and Capacity Utilization” on page 149 of this Prospectus. Actual and future manufacturing volumes and capacity utilization rates may differ significantly from the estimated production capacities of our manufacturing facilities. Undue reliance should therefore not be placed on the information relating to our installed capacities or historical capacity utilization of our manufacturing facilities included in this Prospectus.

Further, there is no guarantee that our future production or capacity utilization levels will match or exceed our historical levels. Under-utilization of our manufacturing capacities over extended periods, or significant under-utilization in the short term could increase our cost of production and our operating costs and adversely impact our business, growth prospects and future financial performance. As of the date of this Prospectus, there have been no such instances of under-utilization of our manufacturing capacities over extended periods, or significant under-utilization in the short term in the past. Our expected return on capital invested is subject to, among other factors, the ability to ensure satisfactory performance of personnel to further grow our business, our ability to absorb additional infrastructure costs and utilize the expanded capacities as anticipated. In case of oversupply in the industry or lack of demand, we may not be able to utilize our capacity efficiently.

7. Demand for our products is related to growth and trends of our end user industry. Decline in sales of our customers may adversely affect the demand for our products which in turn would adversely impact our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Demand for our products is directly related to the production and sales of our end user industry. For further information, see section entitled “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Factors Affecting our Results of Operations and Financial Condition” on page 217 of this Prospectus.

Set out below are the revenues generated from various end-use industries and as a percentage of our revenue from sale of products:

Sectors	Restated Financial Information for the Financial Year Ended March 31
	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Total Revenue	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Total Revenue	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Total Revenue
Transformers	29,642	97.92%	24,194	98.12%	13,896	98.38%
Inverters / UPS	32	0.11%	17	0.07%	0	0.00%
Others (Scrap etc.)	598	1.98%	447	1.81%	229	1.62%
Total	30,272	100.00%	24,658	100%	14,125	100%

The production and sales of our end user industry for which we supply products are affected by a variety of other factors that are beyond our control, including currency fluctuations, government procurement schemes for customers’ products, changes in government policies, changes in consumer demand, product mix shifts favouring economic conditions, demographic trends, disruptions in these industries’ supply chain, labour relations, regulatory requirements, credit availability and cost of credit and general economic and industry conditions. For example, in the Fiscal Year of 2021, our Company experienced a net loss of ₹198.37 Lacs, primarily attributed to the ongoing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. This global crisis significantly disrupted our sales and turnover, leading to a downturn in our financial performance for the year.

It is difficult to forecast events which affect the profitability and liquidity of our customers or the success or sustainability of any strategies undertaken by any of our customers in response to ongoing economic or industry trends. Reduced demand in the industries we currently supply to, continued uncertainty and other unexpected fluctuations or change in regulations, customs, taxes or other barriers or restrictions adversely affecting the market, particularly those impacting our customers could have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

For further information on our key customers, see section entitled “Our Business” on page 164 of this Prospectus.

8. If our customers dispute or default on their payment obligations to us, we may be subject to adverse cash flows and may be required to spend significant amounts in recovering amounts due, in turn adversely impacting our cash flows, results of operations and future prospects.

We are subject to counterparty credit risk and a significant delay in receiving payments or non-receipt of large payments from our customers may adversely impact our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. Due to the inherent nature of our industry, we are required to extend credit terms to our customers and in the event of defaults or disputes with our customers, we may be subject to adverse cash flows or acute working capital mismatches. The following table sets forth below details of our credit cycle, as well as our trade receivables, in the corresponding periods:

	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)
Trade Receivables (₹ in Lakhs)	5,419.66	5,198.02	2,744.39
Trade receivables turnover ratio	5.71	6.21	5.54
Trade receivables days	64	58.77	65.88
Outstanding for less than 6 months	4,835.13	4,634.00	2,121.98
Outstanding for more than 6 months	584.53	564.02	622.41

During the Fiscal Years 2024, 2023, and 2022, our Company has written-off of debtors amounting to ₹5.23 Lakhs, ₹20.49 Lakhs, and ₹447.45 Lakhs respectively. While we have recently put our Internal credit control policy in place, there is no assurance that, in the future, we will be in a position to accurately assess our clientele creditworthiness.

If a significant customer defaults on or delays payment on any order to which we have devoted significant resources, it may affect our profitability and liquidity and decrease capital resources available to us for other uses, including our obligations under the credit facilities granted to us by our lenders as well as our ability to fund payables to our suppliers, which may further result in reduced availability of raw materials and/or increased raw material costs. If we are unable to finance our working capital needs or to secure other financing, when needed, on acceptable commercial terms, it may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

9. The Restated Financial Statements were prepared by a peer-reviewed chartered accountant who is not our Company’s statutory auditor, introducing potential differences in accounting standards and policies.

The restated financial statements for our Company covering the financial years ending March 31 for 2024, 2023, and 2022, have been prepared by M/s A Y & Company, Chartered Accountants, who bear Peer Review Certificate bearing registration number ‘017157’, although they are not the statutory auditors of our Company. As a result, there may be differences in interpretation and application of accounting standards and policies compared to those applied by our statutory auditor. Investors should consider this factor when evaluating the accuracy and reliability of the financial information presented.

10. We do not have long-term agreements with our suppliers for raw materials, and an inability to procure the desired quality, quantity of our raw materials in a timely manner and at reasonable costs, or at all, may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

Our results of operations depend upon our ability to obtain raw materials required for our products and other inputs regularly, at low prices and favourable terms. For the timely supply of raw materials, we have to depend on certain third-party suppliers with whom we do not have any exclusive arrangements. Our inability to procure these raw materials on terms more favourable, or at all, may constrain our raw material supply, resulting in an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. As a result, the success of our business is significantly dependent on maintaining good relationships with our raw material suppliers. Absence of long-term supply contracts subject us to risks such as price volatility caused by various factors such as commodity market fluctuations, currency fluctuations, production and transportation cost, changes in domestic as well as international government policies, and regulatory and trade sanctions. As a result, we are susceptible to the risks arising out of raw material price fluctuations as well as import duties, which could result in a decline in our operating margins. Also, see “Restrictions in import of raw materials may adversely impact our business and results of operations”.

Further, our operations and performance are directly related to and affected by the cost of various inputs including raw materials such as CRGO and CRNGO steel coils, packing materials such as wood, hessian cloth, polythene, plastic straps, metal straps, and freight and forwarding costs. If we cannot fully offset increases in raw material prices such as MS Steel prices with increases in the prices for our assembled cores, we will experience lower margins, which will have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. In the absence of such contracts, we are also exposed to the risk of unavailability of certain raw materials in desired quantities and qualities, in a timely manner or at all.

In the last three Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, we have faced issues and constraints from certain vendors, transportation hindrances, supplier-related challenges, raw material scarcity attributable to shipping and logistical constraints, inactivity of a supplier mill due to floods, non-renewal of BIS licenses required for selling in India by supplier mills, and quality concerns affecting their deliveries. Additionally, our Company’s procurement is reliant on a limited number of suppliers. However, there can be no assurance that such instances will not occur in future which may have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The table below sets forth share in our cost of raw materials from our top 5 and top 10 suppliers in the periods/years indicated:

Particulars of Suppliers	Restated Financial Information for the Financial Year Ended March 31
	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of total Purchase	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of total Purchase	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of total Purchase
Top 5	19,572.74	75.34%	14,007.45	74.19%	9,014.93	63.92%
Top 10	23,062.39	88.77%	17,884.92	94.73%	11,847.72	84.01%

Please note that the Company has expressly declined to provide the names of the suppliers to protect its competitive position.

The table below sets forth our cost of raw materials and change in stock of finished goods and work in progress as a percentage of our revenue from operations in the periods/years indicated:

	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations
Cost of raw materials and change in stock of finished goods and work in progress	24,999.21	82.53%	20,722.14	84.01%	11,300.99	80.01%

There can be no assurance that a particular supplier will continue to supply us with raw materials in the future. Further, we cannot assure you that we will be able to enter into new or renew our existing arrangements with suppliers on terms acceptable to us, which could have an adverse effect on our ability to source raw materials in a commercially viable and timely manner, if at all, which may impact our business and profitability.

In addition, as we generally have short-term arrangements for supply of our products to our business associates, non-availability of required raw materials or any other item of production in desired quantity and quality at the appropriate time, it may impact the production and sale of our products, which may consequently have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

11. There has been an instance of non-compliance with the provisions of Section 260 of the Companies Act, 1956. Any legal action taken for the said instance may have a material adverse effect on our financial and operational performance of our Company.

Mr. Mudit Aggarwal had assumed the role of Additional Director on Thursday, May 10, 2012. According to Section 260 There has been an instance of non-compliance with the provisions of Section 260 of the Companies Act, 1956, it stipulates that “Provided that such additional Directors shall hold office only up to the date of the next annual general meeting of the company.” However, based on the compliance certificate appended to Form 66 for FY 2012-2013, it was evident that the subsequent Annual General Meeting took place on Monday, September 10, 2012, and Mr. Mudit Aggarwal had to be regularized by the board during the said Annual General Meeting. However, the Board failed to regularize his position as a Director, leading to his obligation to vacate the office on Monday, September 10, 2012. Further, our Company has suo-moto moved an application for compounding of offence under the applicable provisions of the Act in respect of non-filing of Form DIR-12 for regularization of Director within due date and thereafter filing the same belatedly. While no notice from the authority has been issued to the company so far as of the date of this Prospectus, but in case if we receive such notices or any penal action would be taken against us then it may have an adverse effect on our financial and operational performance of the company.

Furthermore, as per the records submitted to the RoC, Mr. Munish Kumar Aggarwal had tendered his resignation from the directorship of the Company on Monday, June 04, 2012, and had been reappointed as an Additional Director on Tuesday, April 01, 2014. Mr. Mudit Aggarwal was required to vacate his office on Monday, September 10, 2012, and Mr. Munish Kumar Aggarwal had resigned on Monday, June 04, 2012. Consequently, as of Monday, September 10, 2012, the Company was left with only one director, Mrs. Sunita Aggarwal, serving on the Board. Hence, any documents executed after Monday, September 10, 2012, would lack validity. Additionally, Mrs. Sunita Aggarwal tendered her resignation on Monday, August 26, 2019, while her subsequent appointment as a Director occurred on Friday, September 08, 2023. It is evident from our observations that the company operated with only one director, Mr. Munish Kumar Aggarwal, on the board from Monday, August 26, 2019, to Friday, September 08, 2023. While, we have not undertaken any compounding actions in respect of the aforesaid non-compliances of the past. While no legal proceedings or regulatory action has been initiated against our Company or is pending in relation to untraceable secretarial and other corporate records and documents as of the date of this Prospectus, we cannot assure you that such legal proceedings or regulatory actions will not be initiated against our Company or that any fines will be imposed by regulatory authorities on our Company in this respect in the future.

Certain of our Company’s corporate regulatory filings and records are either not maintained nor are traceable as the relevant information was not available in the records maintained by our Company or on the online portal of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs or in the physical records available at the RoC. 15. We rely on third-party transportation providers for both procurement of raw materials and distribution of our products, and the disruption of such services could adversely impact our business operations and financial performance.

Our success depends on the supply of various raw materials required for our manufacturing facilities and transport of our finished products from our manufacturing facilities to our clients’, which are subject to various uncertainties and risks. We depend on various forms of transportation to either receive raw materials for our manufacturing purposes or to deliver the products to our clients, including for certain export sales. For these purposes, we typically rely on third-party transportation and logistics providers. We do not enter into agreements with transportation providers for the delivery of our products and are therefore dependent on transportation and logistics companies that we engage with. Although we have not encountered any significant disruption to the supply and transportation of raw materials and products in the past, the operating restrictions/ lockdown consequent to the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic temporarily affected our ability to procure raw materials and supply and transport of our finished products in the first quarter of Fiscal 2021. There can be no assurance that any such disruption will not occur in the future as a result of these factors and that such disruptions will not be material.

The table below sets forth our freight charges on sales as a percentage of our revenue from operations in the periods indicated:

	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations
Freight Charges	253.81	0.84%	198.51	0.80%	1,14.45	0.81%

The disruption of transportation services due to natural factors such as weather conditions particularly during monsoon or flood seasons, or man-made factors such as strikes, accidents, or other inadequacies in the transportation infrastructure, or any other factor that could impair the ability of our suppliers to deliver raw materials to us and our ability to deliver our products to our business associates and their ability to deliver products to the end retailer in a timely manner, which may adversely affect the sale of our products. Such raw materials and our products may get damaged, deteriorated, due to improper handling, negligence, transport strike or accidents, or any other force majeure events which may not be within our control. Further, the cost of our goods carried by such third-party transporters is typically much higher than the consideration paid for transportation, due to which it may be difficult for us to recover compensation for damaged, delayed, or lost goods. Additionally, if we lose one or more of our third-party transportation providers, there can be no assurance that we will be able to find new or alternative third-party transportation providers at all, or at terms as favourable as those which we have been in force with our current third-party transportation providers.

Further, our third-party transportation providers may not carry adequate insurance coverage and therefore, any losses that may arise during the transportation process may have to be claimed under our insurance policy, or marine insurance policy. There can be no assurance that we will receive compensation for any such claims in full amount in a timely manner or at all, and consequently, any such loss may adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations. In addition, transportation costs have been steadily increasing. Any significant disruption in the distribution network could have an impact on our business and the results of operations. As of the date of this Prospectus, there have been no such instances in the past.

16. Nearly majorly of our revenues from operations are derived on sales made within India. Our business is therefore significantly affected by fluctuations in general economic activity in India.

Our sales are primarily made to customers located in India. For the Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, our revenues from Sale of Products, by geography were as follows:

Particulars	For the Financial Year ended March 31
	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from Sale of Products	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from Sale of Products	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from Sale of Products
Domestic	26,053.12	86.06%	20,328.91	82.44%	12,087.87	85.58%
Export*	4,218.83	13.94%	4,329.04	17.56%	2,038.83	14.43%
Total	30,271.95	100.00%	24,657.95	100.00%	14,125.12	100.00%

*Export sale includes Sale to SEZ units in India.

As our revenue comes from diverse geographical regions, we are exposed to economic, social, geographical, and political conditions that impact the Indian market overall, as well as factors specific to our sector. Our results of operations are affected by the level of credit availability, interest rates, industry preferences, unemployment rates, availability and cost of electricity, rate of inflation, currency exchange rates, tariffs, incentives, intensity of industry competition, product quality and other such factors, which in turn are affected by the macroeconomic conditions in the Indian economy.

As a part of our strategy, we intend to increase our proportion of revenues from operations coming from outside India which exposes us to markets, customers and risks that we have not managed in the past and we cannot assure you that we will be able to grow such business at a profitable basis. Further, such increased contribution in revenues from operations from outside India, also exposes us to macroeconomic conditions, exchange rate risks, counterparty risks, regulatory risk in such geographies and we may not be able to successfully manage such risks which will adversely impact our business, results of operations and financial condition.

17. A significant portion of our domestic sales (including supply to SEZ) is derived from the northern and southern region, and any adverse developments in this market could adversely affect our business.

Set forth below is certain information on our geography-wise domestic revenue from operations is on restated financial statement for the periods indicated:

Particulars	For the Financial Year ended March 31
	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Domestic Sales of Products	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Domestic Sales of Products	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Domestic Sales of Products
Eastern	2,286	8.71%	847	4.17%	471	3.90%
Northern	14,415	54.96%	9,116	44.84%	7,111	58.84%
Southern	5,406	20.61%	4,943	24.32%	1,657	13.71%
Western	4,124	15.72%	5,423	26.68%	2,847	23.56%

We have historically derived a significant portion of our revenue from sales in the Northern and Southern Region of India. For the Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, the revenue generated from sales in Northern and Southern region cumulatively represented 75.56%, 69.16%, and 72.55% of our revenue from Domestic Sales of Product. Accordingly, any materially adverse social, political or economic development, natural calamities, civil disruptions, regulatory developments or changes in the policies of the state or local government in these region could adversely affect our manufacturing and distribution activities, result in modification of our business strategy or require us to incur significant capital expenditure, which will in turn have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows. Further, our sales from this region may decline as a result of increased competition, regulatory action, pricing pressures, fluctuations in the demand for or supply of our products or services. For example, disruption of our sales and turnover, leading to a downturn in our financial performance resulting in a net loss of ₹198.37 Lacs during the outbreak of an infectious disease of COVID-19 in Financial Year 2021. Our failure to effectively react to these situations in these markets could adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. The occurrence of, or our inability to effectively respond to, any such events or effectively manage the competition in the region, could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and future business prospects.

18. Our success depends upon our ability to formalize and operationalize effective business and growth strategies. Our inability to manage our business, profitability and growth strategy could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Set forth below are details of our EBITDA and profit after tax in the corresponding periods:

EBITDA (₹ in Lakhs)	3,269.60	2,334.56	1,228.61
EBITDA Margin	10.79%	9.46%	8.70%
Profit after Tax (PAT)	1,935.27	1,360.00	595.17

Further, while our profit after tax was ₹595.17 Lakhs in Financial Year ended March 31, 2022 which grew by 137.92% to ₹1,360.00 Lakhs in Financial Year ended March 31, 2023, whereas our profit after tax grew by 42.30% in Financial Year ended March 31, 2024. However, we have also witnessed of loss in the Fiscal 2021 due to covid. We cannot assure you that our growth strategy will continue to be successful or that our profits will increase at all, or at similar rates.

The success of our business will depend greatly on our ability to effectively implement our business and growth strategy. Our growth depends, amongst other factors, on increasing/ expanding presence across India, expanding our existing facilities, and establishing new facilities, increasing manufacturing capacity, optimizing capacity utilization levels, increasing sales of our core products, and improving operational efficiency. Our ability to achieve growth will be subject to a range of factors, including, ability to identify trends and demands in our industry; competing with existing companies in our markets; continuing to exercise effective quality control; recognition of our brand in the new regions; hiring and training qualified personnel; and ability to transport our finished products efficiently.

Many of these factors are beyond our control, and there can be no assurance that we will succeed in implementing our strategy. We may face increased risks when we enter new markets in India to expand our capacity. We may find it more difficult to hire, train, and retain qualified employees. In addition, we may have difficulty in finding reliable suppliers with adequate supplies of raw materials meeting our quality standards and distributors with efficient distribution networks. As a result, the products we introduce in new markets may be more expensive to produce and/or distribute and may take longer to reach expected sales and profit levels than in our existing markets, which could affect the viability of these operations or our overall profitability. However, as of the date of this Prospectus, there have been no such instances in the past.

We are focusing on operational efficiencies to improve returns. Such a growth strategy will place significant demands on our management as well as our financial, accounting, and operating systems and require us to continuously evolve and improve our operational, financial, and internal controls across our organization. In particular, continued expansion increases the challenges involved in:

- making accurate assessments of the resources we will require;
- preserving a uniform culture, values, and work environment across our projects;
- developing and improving our internal administrative infrastructure, particularly our financial,
- operational, communications, internal control, and other internal systems;
- acquiring new customers and increasing or maintaining contribution from existing customer;
- recruiting, training, and retaining sufficient skilled management, technical and marketing personnel;
- maintaining high levels of customer satisfaction; and

- adhering to expected performance and quality standards.

If we are unable to increase our production capacity, we may not be able to successfully execute our growth strategy.

Further, as we scale-up our products, we may not be able to execute our operations efficiently, which may result in delays, increased costs, and lower quality products. We cannot assure you that our future performance or growth strategy will be in line with our past performance or growth strategy. Our failure to manage our growth effectively may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our ability to manage future growth will depend on our ability to continue to implement and improve operational, financial, and to expand, train, motivate and manage our workforce. We cannot assure you that our personnel, systems, procedures, and controls will be adequate to support our future growth. Failure to effectively manage our expansion may lead to increased costs and reduced profitability and may adversely affect our growth prospects. Our inability to manage our business and implement our growth strategy could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and profitability.

19. Mr. Bharat Bhushan Jindal is categorized as immediate relative and Promoter Group in terms of Regulation 2(I) (pp) of the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations. However, SEBI pursuant to its letter dated April 02, 2024, bearing reference number SEBI/HO/CFD/RAC-DIL2/P/OW/2024/12983/1, has allowed us to disclose the information relating him as available in public domain. This reliance on public domain information introduces potential risks related to the accuracy and completeness of disclosed information.

Mr. Bharat Bhushan Jindal, being the Brother of Promoter Ms. Sunita Aggarwal and Brother-in-law of our Promoter Mr. Munish Kumar Aggarwal, qualifies as an immediate relative and a member of the Promoter Group as defined in Regulation 2(I) (pp) of the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations. However, due to strained relations within our Promoter group, communication between our Promoters and Mr. Jindal had ceased. In light of this, our Promoters, Mr. Munish Kumar Aggarwal, and Ms. Sunita Aggarwal, sent him a request letter seeking his consent to be categorized, along with the entities he is associated with, as 'Promoter Group Members of the Company' in the offer documents, and to share relevant documents, confirmations, and undertakings.

However, the application did not meet the criteria outlined in Regulation 300 of the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, as Mr. Bharat Bhushan Jindal is an immediate relative of the promoter, and the sole basis for seeking exemption is strained family ties and his reluctance to be classified as part of the promoter group. Consequently, vide SEBI, in its letter dated April 02, 2024, referenced as SEBI/HO/CFD/RAC-DIL2/P/OW/2024/12983/1, has granted permission for us to disclose information regarding him as available in the public domain.

This regulatory classification and the reliance on public domain information introduce potential risks related to the accuracy and completeness of disclosed information about Mr. Bharat Bhushan Jindal, which investors should consider when evaluating our Company.

20. Restrictions in import of raw materials may adversely impact our business and results of operations.

We currently import CRGO steel and CRNGO steel from China, Poland, USA, UAE, Japan, Germany, and Czech Republic to manufacture our electrical steel products. Raw material imports are regulated by certain specific laws and regulations that permit concerned authorities to stop any import if it is deemed that the products proposed to be imported may cause major accidents or similar adverse incidents. While the raw materials we import are not restricted currently, we cannot assure you that such regulations will not be made applicable to us, or that such regulations will not evolve into more stringent regulations, which would place onerous requirements on us and consequently restrict our ability to import raw materials.

The table below sets forth details of CIF value of Imports as a percentage of total raw material purchased during the year:

	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of total material purchased	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of total material purchased	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of total material purchased
Import	7,061.91	27.18%	6,346.22	32.88%	3,752.39	25.97%

Since our import of raw material is not substantial compared to our overall purchase of raw material, any foreign currency fluctuation in the ordinary course will not have a material impact on the cost of raw materials for us. However, in the event the value of the Indian Rupee depreciates substantially against US Dollar in future on account of global economic situation, our cost of material consumed may increase relatively. However, as on the date of this Prospectus, our Company has not assessed impact on the cost of raw materials imported by us due to any substantial foreign currency fluctuation not in the ordinary course. While we have not experienced any challenges in importing such materials in the last three Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, we cannot assure you that we will not experience any such challenges in the future.

In the event we are unable to import these materials, there can be no assurance that we will be successful in identifying alternate suppliers for raw materials or we will be able to source the raw materials at favourable terms in a timely manner or at all.

21. Some of our properties, including our Registered and Manufacturing Unit II, are located on leased premises. There can be no assurance that we will be able to retain or renew such leases on the same or similar terms, or that we will find alternate locations for the existing offices on terms favorable to us, or at all.

Our manufacturing facility Unit II located at B-9, Site-C, UPSIDC Industrial Area, Surajpur, Greater Noida, Gautam Buddha Nagar - 201306 Uttar Pradesh, India, and our registered office located at 26/36, Upper Ground Floor, East Patel Nagar New Delhi Patel Nagar East, Central Delhi, New Delhi - 110008, India, has been leased by us. The aforesaid properties have been leased from our related parties, which may be renewed on mutually agreed terms between the parties. For further details, see “Our Business – Properties” on page 168 of this Prospectus. These lease agreements may be terminated in accordance with their respective terms, and any termination or non-renewal of such leases could adversely affect our operations. In addition, these leases generally have annual escalation clauses for rent payments. There can be no assurance that we will be able to retain or renew such leases on the same or similar terms, or that we will find alternate locations for the existing offices on terms favourable to us, or at all. Failure to identify suitable premises for relocation of existing properties and facilities, if required, or in relation to new or proposed properties we may purchase, in time or at all, may have an adverse effect on our production and supply chain, the pace of our projected growth as well as our business and results of operations.

22. We have witnessed negative cash flow from investing and financing activities in the past. Any negative cash flows in the future would adversely affect our cash flow requirements, which may adversely affect our ability to operate our business and our financial condition.

The following table sets forth certain information relating to our cash flows for the periods indicated:

	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)
Net Cash Generated from Operating Activities	1576.65	508.72	797.67
Net Cash Generated from Investing Activities	(505.34)	(106.20)	(10.79)
Net Cash Generated from Financing Activities	(1,322.58)	(51.12)	(446.50)

Cash flow of a company is a key indicator to show the extent of cash generated from operations to meet capital expenditure, pay dividends, repay loans, and make new investments without raising finance from external resources.

If our Company will not be able to generate sufficient cash flows, it may adversely affect our business and financial operations.

For further information, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Cash Flows” on page 236 of this Prospectus.

23. We have availed unsecured loans which may be recalled. Any demand from lenders for repayment of such working facilities may adversely affect our cash flows.

We have an outstanding working capital facility amounting to ₹1,738.36 Lakhs, as of March 31, 2024, and in future may continue to avail such working capital facilities which may be recalled at any time. As of March 31, 2024, there are no unsecured loans from our directors.

Recalls on such borrowed amounts may be contingent upon happening of an event beyond our control and there can be no assurance that we will be able to persuade the lenders to give us extensions or to refrain from exercising such recalls, which may adversely affect our results of operations and cash flows. As of the date of this Prospectus, there have been no prior occurrences of such nature.

For further information, see “Risk Factor 48 -Our Promoters, certain of our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and members of our Senior Management may have interests other than reimbursement of expenses incurred and normal remuneration or benefits.” on page 65 of this Prospectus.

24. Our business is working capital intensive. Our net working capital requirements for the Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, were ₹5,335.50 Lakhs, ₹4067.64 Lakhs, and ₹2,590.25 Lakhs, respectively. If we experience insufficient cash flows from our operations or are unable to borrow to meet our working capital requirements, it may materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our business requires significant amount of working capital primarily as a considerable amount of time passes between purchase of raw materials and collection of receivables post sales to customers. As a result, we are required to maintain sufficient stock at all times in order to meet manufacturing requirements as well as extend credit period to customers as per the industry practice, thus increasing our storage and working capital requirements. Consequently, there could be situations where the total funds available may not be sufficient to fulfil our commitments and hence we may need to incur additional indebtedness in the future or utilize internal accruals to satisfy our working capital needs. Our future success depends on our ability to continue to secure and successfully manage sufficient amounts of working capital. Further, our ability to arrange financing and the costs of capital of such financing are dependent on numerous factors, including general economic and capital market conditions and the effect of events such as the COVID-19 pandemic, credit availability from banks, investor confidence, the continued success of our operations and other laws that are conducive to our raising capital in this manner.

The table below sets forth details of our working capital Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, and the source of funding:

	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)
Total Current Assets (A)	11,645.31	9,886.00	8,541.28
Total Current Liabilities (B)	6,309.81	5,818.36	5,951.03
Net Working Capital (A-B)	5,335.50	4,067.64	2,590.25

As we pursue our growth plan, we may be required to raise additional funds by incurring further indebtedness or issuing additional equity to meet our capital expenditures in the future. If we experience insufficient cash flows or are unable to borrow funds on a timely basis, or, at all, to meet our working capital and other requirements, or to pay our debts, it could materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations. Management of our working capital requirements involves the timely payment of, or rolling over of, our short-term indebtedness and securing new and additional loans on acceptable terms, or re-negotiation of our payment terms for, our trade payables, collection of trade receivables and preparing and following accurate and feasible budgets for our business operations. If we are unable to manage our working capital requirements, our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows could be materially and adversely affected. There can be no assurance that we will be able to effectively manage our working capital. Should we fail to effectively implement sufficient internal control procedures and management systems to manage our working capital and other sources of financing, we may have insufficient capital to maintain and grow our business and we may breach the terms of our financing agreements with banks, face claims under cross-default provisions and be unable to obtain new financing, any of which would have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cashflows. For further information on the working capital facilities currently availed of by us, see “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 212 of this Prospectus.

25. Our company has an in-house testing laboratory to conduct CRGO raw material sample testing. If we fail to test the quality of raw material as required, our business, financial condition, cash flows and operations will be adversely affected.

Our company has an in-house testing laboratory to conduct CRGO raw material sample testing. After receipt of raw material coils at our premises, inspection is carried out for the order lot received. Each coil is subject to physical checks as well as testing of electrical and mechanical properties of the material. If a raw material coil passes inspection, it goes into Company inventory, otherwise a complaint is raised to the supplier mill. If for any reason, the supplier denies registering the complaint and does not take any action on it to replace the defect in material, this will hamper and delay our production and the quality of the product, and our revenue and results of operations may be adversely affected. As of the date of this Prospectus, there have been no such instances in the past.

We cannot assure that our laboratory will be in accordance with IS:649 in future due to any unavoidable reasons thereof due to which production of our product will be hampered and delay and thus our revenue and results of operations may be adversely affected. We also cannot assure that we will be able to test and check the quality of raw material in an efficient manner on a continuous basis in future, if we fail to test the same, our revenue and results of operations may be adversely affected.

26. Portion of our Offer Proceeds are proposed to be utilized for general corporate purposes which constitute 21.30% of the Offer Proceeds. As on the date of this Prospectus, the Company has not identified the general corporate purposes for which these funds may be utilized.

As on date we have not identified the use of such funds. Portion of our Offer Proceeds are proposed to be utilized for general corporate purposes which constitute 21.30% of the Offer Proceeds. We have not identified the general corporate purposes for which these funds may be utilized. The deployment of such funds is entirely at the discretion of our management in accordance with policies established by our Board of Directors from time to time and subject to compliance with the necessary provisions of the Companies Act. For details, please refer the chapter titled “Objects of the Offer” beginning on 108 of this Prospectus.

27. Any variation in the utilization of the Net Proceeds would be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior shareholders’ approval.

We propose to utilize the Net Proceeds towards repayment/prepayment of certain borrowings availed by our Company and general corporate purposes in the manner specified in “Objects of the Offer” on page 108 of this Prospectus. At this stage, we cannot determine with any certainty if we would require the Net Proceeds to meet any other expenditure or fund any exigencies arising out of competitive environment, business conditions, economic conditions, or other factors beyond our control. In accordance with Sections 13(8) and 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, we cannot undertake any variation in the utilization of the Net Proceeds without obtaining the shareholders’ approval through a special resolution. In the event of any such circumstances that require us to undertake variation in the disclosed utilization of the Net Proceeds, we may not be able to obtain the shareholders’ approval in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability in obtaining such shareholders’ approval may adversely affect our business or operations. In light of these factors, we may not be able to undertake variation of objects of the Offer to use any unutilized proceeds of the Offer, if any, or vary the terms of any contract referred to in this Prospectus, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. This may restrict our Company’s ability to respond to any change in our business or financial condition by re-deploying the unutilized portion of Net Proceeds, if any, or varying the terms of contract, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

28. Our manufacturing facilities are dependent on adequate and uninterrupted supply of electricity, water, gas, and fuel. Any shortage or disruption in electricity/gas, water, or fuel supply may lead to disruption in operations, higher operating cost, and consequent decline in our operating margins.

Adequate and cost-effective supply of electrical power, water, natural gas, and fuel is critical to operations at our manufacturing facilities. We primarily rely on the state electricity boards through a power grid for the supply of electricity. The table below provides details of our power and fuel costs as a percentage of our revenue from operations for the periods indicated

	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations
Power and Electricity Cost	61.71	0.20%	57.52	0.23%	49.50	0.35%

Since there may be power cuts in the supply provided by the state electricity board from time to time, we have stand-by diesel generator sets for our operations to ensure that there is no stoppage in our production. Power costs represent a portion of our operating costs. If the per unit cost of electricity is increased by the state electricity boards our power costs will increase. It may not be possible to pass on any increase in our power costs to our customers and the end user, which may adversely affect our profit margins.

Our operations and facilities are also dependent on a steady and stable supply of water. An irregular or interrupted supply of water could adversely affect our daily operations. If there is an insufficient supply of water to satisfy our requirements or a significant increase in prices, we may need to limit our manufacturing facilities, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations. We cannot assure you that we will always have access to sufficient supplies of water in the future to accommodate our manufacturing requirements and planned growth.

In addition to the manufacturing losses that we would incur in the absence of a supply of electrical power or water, we would not be able to immediately return to full manufacturing volumes following power interruptions, however brief. Any interruption of power, even if short, could give rise to inefficiencies when we resume production. While there have not been any material disruptions in the supply of electricity, water, gas, and fuel faced by our Company in the last three Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, there can be no assurance that such instances will not occur in future which may have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

29. We enter into certain related party transactions in the ordinary course of our business, and we cannot assure you that such transactions will not have an adverse effect on our results of operation and financial condition.

We have entered into transactions with related parties in the past and from, time to time, we may enter into related party transactions in the ordinary course of business. These transactions include sale(s), purchase(s), rentals, interest expenses, short term borrowings, long term borrowings, remuneration paid to KMPs and Directors, siting fees payable to Directors, reimbursement of expenses. While all such related party transactions that we may enter into post-listing will be subject to an approval by our Audit Committee, Board, or Shareholders, as required under the Companies Act and the SEBI (LODR) Regulations. Such related party transactions in the future or any other future transactions may potentially involve conflicts of interest which may be detrimental to the interest of our Company, and we cannot assure you they will not have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

The table below provides details of our related party transactions as a percentage of revenue from operations in the relevant periods:

	2024	2023	2022
Revenue from Operations (₹ Lakhs)	30,290.97	24,666.47	14,125.12
Aggregate Amount of Related Party Transactions (₹ Lakhs)	(269.77)	108.08	195.29
Percentage of the Aggregate Amount of Related Party Transactions to our Revenue from Operations	(0.89%)	0.44%	1.38%

For further information on our related party transactions, see, “Summary of the Offer Document – Summary of Related Party Transactions”, “*Risk Factor 32 titled as Certain of our corporate filings and records are not traceable. 30. We are subject to government regulations and if we fail to obtain, maintain, or renew our statutory and regulatory licenses, permits, and approvals required to operate our business, our results of operations and cash flows may be adversely affected.

We are governed by various laws and regulations for our business and operations. We are required, and will continue to be required, to obtain and to hold relevant licenses, approvals and permits at state and central government levels to operate our business. The approvals, licenses, registrations, and permits obtained by us may contain conditions, some of which could be onerous.

These licenses, registrations, and approvals are subject to several conditions, and we cannot assure that we will be able to continue to meet such conditions or be able to prove compliance with such conditions to statutory authorities, and this may lead to cancellation, revocation, or suspension of relevant licenses, approvals, and registrations.

Further, certain approvals, licenses and permits are valid for a certain period and are required to be renewed at regular intervals in accordance with the timelines prescribed under the relevant statutes or as may be provided under the terms of such approvals, licenses and/or permits. Additionally, we have applied for obtaining Consent to Establish and Consent to Operate by the Uttar Pradesh Pollution Control Board for our second factory for Unit-II. Although based on Legal opinion, we believe that we are able to operate Unit II without the Consent to operate and Consent to establish as per letter dated 09/01/2019 issued by the U.P. Pollution Control Board (Ref No. G29267/c-4/62/2019).

Further, in past before the release of above-mentioned notification, we had been operating our Unit II without obtaining Consent to Establish and Consent to Operate. Although we have not been issued with any notice in this respect nor have, we been subjected to any penalty till date, we are not sure that any penalty will be levied on us or any action may be taken against us or at all.

Failure by us to obtain, maintain, or renew the required licenses or approvals, or cancellation, suspension, or revocation of any of the licenses, approvals and registrations may result in interruption of our operations and may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. For further details regarding material approvals, licenses, registrations, and permits, see “Government and Other Statutory Approvals” on page 246 of this Prospectus.

While we do not expect them to have any material impact on our business and financial condition, we cannot assure you that these proceedings will be decided in favour of our Company. Any adverse decision in such proceedings may render us liable to penalties and may have a material adverse effect on the financials and reputation of our Company, and its Directors, which may in turn have an adverse effect on our business. Additionally, during the course of our business we are subject to risk of litigation in relation to contractual obligations, employment and labour law related, personal injury, damage to property, etc.

Should such delays occur in the future, the accumulated amounts from each delay may adversely affect our cash flows. To date, no show-cause notice has been issued against our company in respect of these delays. However, if the concerned authorities take cognizance of these delays, actions may be taken against our company and its directors, potentially impacting the financials of both our company and our directors.

33. Improper storage and handling of raw materials and finished products may cause damage to our inventory leading to an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and cash flows.

Our inventory primarily consists of raw materials including CRGO steel and CRNGO steel in the form of coils. CRGO steel and CRNGO steel, in particular, are highly sensitive steel variants. Exposure to stresses, bends, jolts, moisture, chemicals, or other liquids can lead to deterioration in their mechanical and electrical properties, resulting in the depreciation of inventory value. Likewise, both raw materials and finished goods are vulnerable to transit damages caused by adverse weather conditions or rough handling.

Hence, raw materials, manufacturing processes and finished products if not appropriately stored, handled, and processed may affect the quality of the finished product, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows. Improper storage may also result in higher than usual spoilage of inventory due to adverse weather conditions or longer than usual storage periods, which may result in cultivation of our inventory consisting of our products and may also require us to incur additional expenses in replacing that portion of the inventory and/ or incur additional expenses in maintenance and improvement of our storage infrastructure, which may adversely affect our profit margins. As of the date of this Prospectus, there have been no such instances in the past.

34. An inability to maintain adequate insurance cover in connection with our business may adversely affect our operations and profitability.

Our operations are subject to various risks inherent in the manufacturing industry including defects, malfunctions, and failures of manufacturing equipment, fire, riots, strikes, explosions, accidents, and natural disasters. Our insurance may not be adequate to completely cover any or all of our risks and liabilities. Further, there is no assurance that the insurance premiums payable by us will be commercially viable or justifiable.

To the extent that we suffer loss or damage as a result of events for which we are not insured, or for which we did not obtain or maintain insurance, or which is not covered by insurance, exceeds our insurance coverage or where our insurance claims are rejected, the loss would have to be borne by us and our results of operations, financial performance and cash flows could be adversely affected. Although we have not experienced any loss or damage in the past three financial years, there can be no assurance that we will not experience any such disruption in the future. For further information on our insurance arrangements, see “Our Business – Insurance” on page 171 of this Prospectus.

While we believe that the insurance coverage which we maintain would be reasonably adequate to cover the normal risks associated with the operation of our business, we cannot assure you that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honoured fully, or in part, or on time, or that we have taken out sufficient insurance to cover all our losses. In addition, our insurance coverage expires from time to time. We apply for the renewal of our insurance coverage in the normal course of our business, but we cannot assure you that such renewals will be granted in a timely manner, at an acceptable cost, or at all. To the extent that we suffer loss or damage, for which we have not obtained or maintained insurance, or which is not covered by insurance, which exceeds our insurance coverage, or where our insurance claims are rejected, the loss would have to be borne by us and our results of operations, cash flows and financial performance could be adversely affected.

35. Our business may be adversely affected by work stoppages, increased wage demands by our employees, or an increase in minimum wages across various states, and if we are unable to engage new employees at commercially attractive terms.

The success of our operations depends on the availability of labour and maintaining a good relationship with our workforce. Our success also depends on our ability to attract, hire, train and retain skilled workers who are experienced in manufacturing operations. As of July 31, 2024, we employed 310 full-time employees. Although we have not experienced any major interruption to our operations as a result of labour disputes or labour unrest in the past three financial years, there can be no assurance that we will not experience any such disruption in the future as a result of disputes or disagreements with our permanent and contractual workforce, which may adversely affect our ability to continue our business operations. Further, a significant increase in our employee attrition rate could also result in decreased operational efficiencies and productivity, loss of market knowledge and customer relationships, and an increase in recruitment and training costs, thereby materially and adversely affecting our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to find or hire personnel with requisite experience or expertise to operate our machinery at our existing manufacturing facilities. In case we are unable to hire such personnel with necessary experience or expertise, our business operations, financial condition, and results of operations may be adversely affected.

Further, India has stringent labour legislation that protects the interests of workers, including legislation that sets forth detailed procedures for the establishment of unions, dispute resolution, and employee removal, and legislation that imposes certain financial obligations on employers upon retrenchment. Our employees are not unionized. However, in the event that our employees seek to unionize, it may become difficult for us to maintain flexible labour policies, which may increase our costs and adversely affect our business.

36. Any defects or deficiency in our products could lead to product liability claims and lawsuits being filed against us. An adverse order/decreed in any of these lawsuits could have a material adverse effect on our operations.

Our product portfolio caters to a wide range of end user industries including Slit Coils, Cut laminations, Assembled Cores, E and I Stampings, and Mother Coils. If our products contain defects that adversely affect our end user, we may incur additional costs in rectifying such defects. In addition, any defect in our products could lead to claims or lawsuits against us. We could be asked to pay compensatory costs and punitive damages if such claims or lawsuits are determined against us which may also result in adverse publicity and impact our brand and customer goodwill. While we have not faced any instances of product liability claims in the past three Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, we cannot assure you that we will not face any such product liability claims in the future.

37. We are required to comply with certain restrictive covenants under our financing agreements. Any non-compliance may lead to, amongst others, accelerated repayment schedule, enforcement of security, and suspension of further drawdowns, which may adversely affect our business operations and financial performance.

As of March 31, 2024, we had total outstanding borrowings of ₹2,416.15 Lakhs. Certain financing arrangements entered into by us include conditions that require our Company to obtain respective lenders' consent prior to carrying out certain activities and entering into certain transactions. These covenants vary depending on the requirements of the financial institution extending such loans and the conditions negotiated under each financing agreement. Some of the corporate actions that require prior consents from certain lenders include, amongst others, changes to the (i) capital structure and shareholding pattern of our Company, (ii) constitutional documents including memorandum and/or articles of association of our Company, (iii) constitution of board of directors and management set up of our Company, (iv) shareholding of the promoters resulting in our Promoters' shareholding falling below 51%, (v) lock-in on shareholding of promoters, (vi) repayment/pre-payment of financing facilities; and (vii) down streaming of funds to the subsidiary of our Company, by way of debt or equity. While we have received all relevant consents required for the purposes of this Offer, a failure to comply with such covenants may restrict or delay certain actions or initiatives that we may propose to take from time to time.

In addition, our Company has in the past not been or may not have been in compliance with certain financial covenants under certain of its financing agreement on annual testing, including breach of certain accounting ratios specified under such arrangements.

As of the date of this Prospectus, none of our lenders have issued any notice of default or required us to repay any part of our borrowings on account of any non-compliance. However, there can be no assurance that our lenders will not, in the future, seek to enforce their rights in respect of any past, present, or future breaches or that we will be able to obtain waivers from any or all lenders. In the absence of waivers for any non-compliance of the covenants, we may continue to be in default of the covenants and our lenders have the right to, among others, declare all amounts outstanding under the relevant loan agreements immediately due and payable together with accrued and unpaid interest (which could result in up to all our outstanding borrowings becoming due and payable) or to convert the loan into equity shares.

An inability to comply with the covenants under our financing arrangements or to obtain necessary consents/ waivers may lead to acceleration of amounts due under such facilities and triggering of cross-default provisions. If the obligations under any of our financing documents are accelerated, we may have to dedicate a portion of our cash flow from operations to make payments under such financing documents, thereby reducing the availability of cash for our working capital requirements and other general corporate purposes. In addition, during any period in which we are not compliant with any of the covenants under our financing agreements, we may be unable to raise or face difficulties raising further financing.

Such non-compliances with loan covenants by the Company would constitute an event of default under the relevant financing agreements which could further trigger cross-defaults under other loan agreements, and would entitle the respective lenders to declare a default against our Company and enforce remedies under the terms of the financing documents, that include, among others, acceleration in repayment of the amounts outstanding under the financing documents, the right to convert the loan into equity, enforcement of any security interest created under the financing documents, and taking possession of the assets given as security in respect of the financing documents. If the lenders of a material amount of the outstanding loans declare an event of default simultaneously, our Company may be unable to pay its debts when they fall due.

38. If we are unable to raise additional capital, our business prospects could be adversely affected.

We intend to fund our expansion plans through our cash in hand, cash flow from operations, raising additional capital through equity issuances and by infusing capital for the ongoing capital expansion plans at our manufacturing facility at Greater Noida. For details, kindly refer the “Risk Factor 4 - If there are delays or if the costs of setting up and the possible time or cost overruns related to the expansion of the Unit-II or the purchase of plant and machinery for the said Unit-II are higher than expected, it could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations and growth prospects,” on page 30 of this Prospectus.

We will continue to incur significant expenditure in maintaining and growing our existing infrastructure. We cannot assure you that we will have sufficient capital resources for our current operations or any future expansion plans that we may have. While we expect our cash in hand and cash flow from operations to be adequate to fund our existing commitments, our ability to incur any future borrowings is dependent upon the success of our operations. Additionally, the inability to obtain sufficient financing could adversely affect our ability to complete expansion plans. Our ability to arrange financing and the costs of capital of such financing are dependent on numerous factors, including general economic and capital market conditions, investor confidence, the continued success of our operations and other laws that are conducive to raising capital in this manner. If we decide to meet our capital requirements through debt financing, we may be subject to certain restrictive covenants. In addition, in the event there is a delay in sanctioning of amounts from lenders for our working capital requirements, we may have to use cash from our internal accruals which would adversely impact our ability to fulfil our expansion plans and thereby our business operations. If we are unable to raise adequate capital in a timely manner and on acceptable terms, or at all, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition could be adversely affected.

39. We are exposed to counterparty credit risk and any delay in receiving payments or non-receipt of payments may adversely impact our results of operations.

Due to the nature of, and the inherent risks in, the informal arrangements with our clients’, we are subject to counterparty credit risk and a significant delay in receiving large payments or non-receipt of large payments may adversely impact our results of operations. Our operations involve extending credit to our clients in respect of the sale of our products and consequently, we face the risk of uncertainty regarding the receipt of these outstanding amounts. For the Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, our trade receivables were ₹5,419.66 Lakhs, ₹5,198.02 Lakhs, and ₹2,744.39 Lakhs, respectively.

The table below provides details of amount written off by us in relation to non-collection of payment from business associates as a percentage of total sales of our products:

	2024	2023	2022
Amount written-off in relation to non-collection of payment from clients’ (₹ Lakhs)	5.23	20.49	447.45
As a percentage of total sales of our products (%)	0.02%	0.08%	3.17%

There is no assurance that we will accurately assess the creditworthiness of our clients’. Further, macroeconomic conditions which are beyond our control, such as a potential credit crisis in the global financial system, could also result in financial difficulties for our business associates, including limited access to the credit markets, insolvency, or bankruptcy. Such conditions could cause our business associates to delay payment, request modifications of their payment terms, or default on their payment obligations to us, all of which could increase our receivables. Timely collection of dues from business associates also depends on our ability to complete our contractual commitments and subsequently bill for and collect from our clients. If we are unable to meet our contractual obligations, we may experience delays in the collection of, or be unable to collect, our customer balances, which could adversely affect our results of operations and cash flows.

40. Certain of our financing agreements involve variable interest rates and an increase in interest rates may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

We are susceptible to changes in interest rates and the risks arising therefrom. Certain of our financing agreements provide for interest at variable rates with a provision for the periodic resetting of interest rates. Further, under certain of our financing agreements, the lenders are entitled to charge the applicable rate of interest, which is a combination of a base rate/External Benchmark Rate/ External Benchmark Lending Rate that depends upon the policies of the RBI and a contractually agreed spread, and in the event of an adverse change in our Company's credit risk rating it may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. Also see "Financial Indebtedness" on page 212 of this Prospectus for a description of interest payable under our financing agreements. Further, in recent years, the Government of India has taken measures to control inflation, which included tightening the monetary policy by raising interest rates. As such, any increase in interest rates may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.

41. Our inability to accurately manage our inventory may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

We maintain a reasonable level of inventory of raw materials, work in progress and finished goods. However, if we have inadequate capacity due to which we are unable to meet the demand for our products, it could result in the loss of business. Our clients' also have the right to return or reject the product in the event that the products do not conform to the specified parameters. There have been certain instances where products have been returned, however, such returns have not been material. Further, we typically recycle the rejected and returned products and use them to manufacture products for customers, by downgrading their materiality, which results in losing of its value. Our inability to accurately manage our inventory may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

42. We have certain contingent liabilities, which, if they materialize, may affect our results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

As of March 31, 2024, our contingent liabilities (claims against the Company (including unasserted claims) not acknowledged as debt) that have not been accounted for in our financial statements were as follows:

Particulars	As of March 31, 2024 (₹ in lakhs)
Related to Direct Tax matters	54.51
Related to Indirect Tax matters	2.29
Estimated value of contracts in capital account remaining to be executed (net of capital advance)	777.66
Total	834.46

Note:

If a significant portion of these liabilities materializes, it could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. For further information, see "Restated Financial Information – Note XII – Contingent Liabilities" on page F-24 of this Prospectus.

43. We engage in foreign currency transactions, which expose us to adverse fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Rupee and other currencies may affect our operating results.

A small portion of our total revenues is denominated in currencies other than Indian Rupees. The table below sets forth details of our export sales in the periods indicated:

	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations
Exports (Exclusive SEZ sales)	4,041.77	13.34%	3,461.90	14.03%	2,038.84	14.43%

Further, we also import certain equipment for our machinery. As of March 31, 2024, there has been no hedging of our foreign currency exposure. In addition, the policies of the RBI may also change from time to time, which may limit our ability to effectively hedge our foreign currency exposures and may have an effect on our results of operations and cash flows.

For further information, see "Restated Financial Information – Note XII – Contingent Liabilities" on page F-24 of this Prospectus.

We are highly dependent on the continued contributions of our Promoter, Chairman and Whole-time Director, Mr. Munish Kumar Aggarwal. Further, we rely on the continued effort and services of some key members who form part of our Key Managerial Personnel and our Senior Management. The loss of the services of our Key Managerial Personnel, Senior Management and any of our other executive officers, and our inability to find suitable replacements, could cause harm to our business and operations.

For further information in relation to changes in our Board, see “Our Management” on page 191 of this Prospectus.

We cannot guarantee that we will be able to recruit and retain qualified and capable employees. In addition, our recruiting personnel, methodology, and approach may need to be altered to address a wider, more diverse, and changing candidate pool and profile. We cannot assure you that we will be able to do so in a timely and effective manner. We may also have to adapt to remote methods of talent management and engagement, especially due to nationwide lockdowns and geographic expansion. We may incur significant costs to attract and recruit skilled personnel, and we may lose new personnel before we realize the benefit of our investment in recruiting and training them. If we fail to attract new personnel or fail to retain and motivate our current personnel who are capable of meeting our growing technical, operational, and managerial requirements on a timely basis or at all, our business may be harmed.

Our success depends on our ability to effectively source and staff people with the right mix of skills and experience to perform services for our business associates, including our ability to transition personnel to new assignments on a timely basis. If we are unable to effectively utilize our personnel on a timely basis to fulfil the needs of our business associates, our business could suffer.

45. Majority of our Directors do not have any prior experience of being a director in any other listed company in India.

Our current Board comprises of six directors which includes 1 Managing Director, 2 executive directors and 3 non-executive independent directors. Majority of our board of directors do not have any prior experience of being a director in any other listed company in India. Further, one of executive directors, Ms. Sunita Aggarwal, does not have educational qualification relating to the business of our Company. While our Board members are qualified and have relevant experience in their respective field, not having any prior experience as being a director in any other listed company in India may present some potential challenges to our Company in effectively meeting with good corporate governance norms and practices. For further details, please see chapter titled “Our Management” on page 183 of this Prospectus.

- 46. *The deployment of funds raised through this Offer shall not be subject to any Monitoring Agency and shall be purely dependent on the discretion of the management of our Company.

Since the Offer Size is less than ₹10,000 Lakhs, there is no mandatory requirement of appointing an Independent Monitoring Agency for overseeing the deployment of utilization of funds raised through this Offer. The deployment of these funds raised through this Offer, is hence, at the discretion of the management and the Board of Directors of our Company and will not be subject to monitoring by any independent agency. Any inability on our part to effectively utilize the Offer proceeds could adversely affect our financials.

- 47. *After the completion of the Offer, our Promoters along with the Promoter Group will continue to collectively hold majority of the shareholding in our Company, which will allow them to influence the outcome of matters requiring shareholder approval.

- 48. *Our Promoters, certain of our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and members of our Senior Management may have interests other than reimbursement of expenses incurred and normal remuneration or benefits.

Our Promoters, certain of our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and members of our Senior Management are interested in our Company, in addition to regular remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, payment of dividend or distributions thereon, unsecured loans given by certain Promoters and KMPs to our Company, and rent income earned by one of our Promoters from our Company. For instance, our Company has availed certain interest-free unsecured loans from our Promoters, namely, Munish Kumar Aggarwal, Mudit Aggarwal and Sunita Aggarwal . For the payments that are made by our Company to related parties including remuneration to our Directors and our Key Managerial Personnel, see “Summary of the Offer Document– Summary of Related Party Transactions” on page 24 of this Prospectus. Further, our Promoters and Promoter Selling Shareholder have also provided certain guarantees on behalf of our Company in favour of certain lenders of our Company. For further information on the interest of our Promoters and Directors of our Company, other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or remuneration or benefits, see “Our Management” and “Our Promoters and Promoter Group” on pages 191, and 199 respectively of this Prospectus.

- 49. *We may not successfully protect our technical know-how, which may result in the loss of our competitive advantage.

We have developed a range of technical know-how relating to the manufacturing process of our products, customer and supplier database, raw material grade technical specs database. This knowledge base has enhanced our ability to manage our manufacturing costs and improve our product quality to compete more effectively. Our technical know-how has been derived from the past experience of our key employees and management team as well as our research and development efforts. Although we have not experienced any such leaks in Fiscals 2024, 2023, and 2022, and we cannot assure you that any of our proprietary knowledge may not be leaked, either inadvertently or wilfully in the future. 53. Our half-yearly results may fluctuate for a variety of reasons and may not fully reflect the underlying performance of our business.

Upon listing of the Equity Shares, our Company will be required to publish its financial results for the half-year of the Fiscal, in accordance with the SEBI (LODR) Regulations. Our half-yearly financial results may fluctuate as a result of a variety of factors, many of which are outside of our control and, as a result, may not fully reflect the underlying performance of our business. The factors that may affect our half-yearly financial results also include, our ability to attract new clients and cross-sell to existing clientele; the amount and timing of operating expenses related to the maintenance and expansion of our business, operations and infrastructure; general economic, political, weather, industry and market conditions; changes in our pricing policies or those of our competitors and suppliers; the timing and success of new services and service introductions by us and our competitors or any other change in the competitive dynamics of the Indian travel industry, including consolidation among competitors, customers or strategic partners. Our half-yearly operating results may therefore vary significantly in the future, and period-to-period comparisons of our operating results may not be meaningful. Accordingly, the results of any one quarter may not be reliable as an indicator of future performance. Further, any delay in filing these quarterly results will also result in additional costs for us.

54. Changes in technology may affect our business by making our manufacturing facilities or equipment less competitive.

Our profitability and competitiveness are to a certain extent dependent on our ability to respond to technological advances and emerging industry standards and practices on a cost-effective and timely basis. Changes in technology may make newer generation manufacturing equipment more competitive than ours or may require us to make additional capital expenditures to upgrade our manufacturing facilities. Our inability to continue to invest in new and more advanced technologies and equipment, may result in our inability to respond to emerging industry standards and practices in a cost-effective and timely manner that is competitive with other manufacturing companies. The development and implementation of such technology entails technical and business risks. We cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully implement new technologies or adapt our processing systems to emerging industry standards. If we are unable to adapt in a timely manner to changing market conditions or technological changes, our business and financial performance could be adversely affected.

55. Our funding requirements and proposed deployment of the Net Proceeds are based on management estimates, and we have not entered into any definitive arrangements to utilize certain portions of the Net Proceeds of the Offer. These plans have not been independently appraised by a bank or a financial institution.

We intend to use up to ₹4,500 Lakhs out of the Net Proceeds of the Issue for meeting our working capital requirements as described in the section titled “Objects of the Issue” on page 108 of this Draft Red Herring Prospectus. The Objects of the Issue comprise for meeting working capital requirements of our Company and general corporate purposes. We have not entered into any definitive agreements to utilize the Net Proceeds for this object of the Issue. Additionally, in the event of any delay in placement of such orders, the proposed schedule implementation and deployment of the Net Proceeds may be extended or may vary accordingly. We cannot assure you that we will be able to undertake such capital expenditure within the cost indicated by such quotations or that there will not be cost escalations. For details, see “Objects of the Issue” on page 108 of this Prospectus.

The objects of the Issue have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution, and our funding requirement is based on current conditions, internal estimates, estimates received from the third-party agencies and are subject to changes in external circumstances or costs, or in other financial condition, business or strategy. Based on the competitive nature of our industry, we may have to revise our business plan and/ or management estimates from time to time and consequently our funding requirements may also change. Such internal estimates may differ from the value that would have been determined by third party appraisals, which may require us to reschedule or reallocate our expenditure, subject to applicable laws. In case of increase in actual expenses or shortfall in requisite funds, additional funds for a particular activity will be met by any means available to us, including internal accruals and additional equity and/or debt arrangements, and may have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. Accordingly, investors in the Equity Shares will be relying on the judgment of our management regarding the application of the Net Proceeds. Further, pursuant to Section 27 of the Companies Act, any variation in the Objects of the Issue would require a special resolution of the shareholders and the promoter or controlling shareholders will be required to provide an exit opportunity to the shareholders who do not agree to such proposal to vary the Objects of the Issue, at such price and in such manner in accordance with applicable law. Our Company, in accordance with the applicable law and to attain the objects set out above, will have the flexibility to deploy the Net Proceeds. Pending utilization of the Net Proceeds for the purposes described above, our Company may temporarily deposit the Net Proceeds within one or more scheduled commercial banks included in the Second Schedule of RBI Act as may be approved by our Board.

56. We have in this Prospectus included certain non-GAAP financial measures and certain other industry measures related to our operations and financial performance. These non- GAAP measures and industry measures may vary from any standard methodology that is applicable across the manufacturing industry, and therefore may not be comparable with financial or industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature computed and presented by other companies.

Certain non-GAAP financial measures and certain other industry measures relating to our operations and financial performance have been included in this Prospectus. We compute and disclose such non-GAAP financial measures and such other industry related statistical information relating to our operations and financial performance as we consider such information to be useful measures of our business and financial performance, and because such measures are frequently used by securities analysts, investors, and others to evaluate the operational performance of Indian manufacturing industry, many of which provide such non-GAAP financial measures and other industry related statistical and operational information. Such supplemental financial and operational information is therefore of limited utility as an analytical tool, and investors are cautioned against considering such information either in isolation or as a substitute for an analysis of our audited financial statements as reported under applicable accounting standards disclosed elsewhere in this Prospectus.

These non-GAAP financial measures and such other industry related statistical and other information relating to our operations and financial performance may not be computed on the basis of any standard methodology that is applicable across the industry and therefore may not be comparable to financial measures and industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature that may be computed and presented by other companies.

57. Our Company may not be able to pay dividends in the future. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, working capital requirements, capital expenditures, and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements.

We cannot assure you that we will generate sufficient revenues to cover our operating expenses and, as such, pay dividends to our Company's shareholders in the future consistent with our past practices, or at all. For details pertaining to dividends declared by our Company in the past, see "Dividend Policy" on page 207 of this Prospectus.

External Risk Factors

58. Recent global economic conditions have been challenging and continue to affect the Indian market, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and prospects.

The Indian economy and its securities markets are influenced by economic developments and volatility in securities markets in other countries. Investors' reactions to developments in one country may have adverse effects on the market price of securities of companies located in other countries, including India. Negative economic developments, such as rising fiscal or trade deficits, or a default on national debt, in other emerging market countries may also affect investor confidence and cause increased volatility in Indian securities markets and indirectly affect the Indian economy in general. Any worldwide financial instability could also have a negative impact on the Indian economy, including the movement of exchange rates and interest rates in India and could then adversely affect our business, financial performance, and the price of our Equity Shares.

Any other global economic developments or the perception that any of them could occur may continue to have an adverse effect on global economic conditions and the stability of global financial markets and may significantly reduce global market liquidity and restrict the ability of key market participants to operate in certain financial markets. Any of these factors could depress economic activity and restrict our access to capital, which could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations and reduce the price of our Equity Shares. Any financial disruption could have an adverse effect on our business, future financial performance, shareholders' equity, and the price of our Equity Shares.

59. Natural or man-made disasters, fires, epidemics, pandemics, acts of war, terrorist attacks, civil unrest, and other events could materially and adversely affect our business.

Natural disasters (such as typhoons, flooding, and/or earthquakes), epidemics, pandemics such as COVID-19, and man-made disasters, including acts of war, terrorist attacks, and other events, many of which are beyond our control, may lead to economic instability, including in India or globally, which may in turn materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations. Recent developments in the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine and the Israel and Hamas has resulted in and may continue to result in a period of sustained instability across global financial markets, induce volatility in commodity prices, adversely impact availability of natural gas, increase in supply chain, logistics times and costs, increase borrowing costs, cause outflow of capital from emerging markets and may lead to overall slowdown in economic activity in India.

Our operations may be adversely affected by fires, natural disasters, and/or severe weather, which can result in damage to our property or inventory and generally reduce our productivity and may require us to evacuate personnel and suspend operations. Any terrorist attacks or civil unrest as well as other adverse social, economic, and political events in India could have a negative effect on us. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the price of the Equity Shares. A number of countries in Asia, including India, as well as countries in other parts of the world, are susceptible to contagious diseases and, for example, have had confirmed cases of diseases such as the highly pathogenic H7N9, H5N1, and H1N1 strains of influenza in birds and swine and more recently, the SARS-CoV-2 virus and the monkeypox virus. Another outbreak of any new variant of COVID-19 pandemic such as the new JN.1 variant or future outbreaks of SARS-CoV-2 virus or a similar contagious disease could adversely affect the global economy and economic activity in the region. For example, as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic related lockdown and other restrictions, the business operations of our Company experienced temporary disruption for several weeks starting from in the first quarter of Fiscal 2021. Due to which our Company has incurred a loss of ₹(20.79) Lakhs in Fiscal 2021. We witnessed an increase in demand for our products and our revenue from operations increased from ₹7,496.51 Lakhs in Fiscal 2021 to ₹14,125.12 Lakhs million in Fiscal 2022.

60. Any downgrading of India's sovereign debt rating by an international rating agency could have a negative impact on our business and the results of operations.

Our borrowing costs and our access to the debt capital markets depend significantly on the credit ratings of India. Any adverse revisions to credit ratings for India and other jurisdictions we operate in by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favourable terms and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of the Equity Shares.

61. If there is any change in laws or regulations, including taxation laws, or their interpretation, such changes may significantly affect our financial statements.

The Income Tax Act, 1961 (“IT Act”) was amended to provide new manufacturing domestic companies (i.e., companies which have been set-up and registered on or after October 1, 2019 and commenced manufacturing or production on or before March 31, 2024) an option to pay corporate income tax at the rate of 15% (plus applicable surcharge and health and education cess), as compared to rate of 30% (plus applicable surcharge and health and education cess), provided such companies do not claim certain specified deductions or exemptions (“15% Corporate Tax Regime”). Similarly, other domestic companies have an option to pay corporate income tax at the rate of 22% (plus applicable surcharge and health and education cess), on satisfaction of prescribed conditions. Further, where a company has opted to pay the reduced corporate tax rate, the minimum alternate tax provisions would not be applicable. We have opted to pay corporate tax under the 15% Corporate Tax Regime. If there are any changes to 15% Corporate Tax Regime, we may not be able to avail such benefits. Further, any such future amendments may affect our ability to claim exemptions that we have historically benefited from, and such exemptions may no longer be available to us. Any adverse order passed by the appellate authorities/tribunals/ courts would have an effect on our profitability.

Further, with the implementation of GST, we are obligated to pass on any benefits accruing to us as result of the transition to GST to the consumer thereby limiting our benefits. In order for us to utilize input credit under GST, the entire value chain has to be GST compliant, including us. While we are and will continue to adhere to the GST rules and regulations, there can be no assurance that our suppliers and dealers will do so. Any such failure may result in increased cost on account of non-compliance with the GST and may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Earlier, distribution of dividends by a domestic company was subject to Dividend Distribution Tax (“DDT”), and such dividends were generally exempt from tax in the hands of the shareholders. However, the GoI has amended the IT Act to abolish the DDT regime. Accordingly, any dividend distributed by a domestic company is subject to tax in the hands of the investor at the applicable rate. Additionally, the Company is required to withhold tax on such dividends distributed at the applicable rate. The Company may or may not grant the benefit of a tax treaty (where applicable) to a non-resident shareholder for the purposes of deducting tax at source pursuant to any corporate action including dividends. Investors are advised to consult their own tax advisors and to carefully consider the potential tax consequences of owning Equity Shares.

The Government of India announced the union budget for Fiscal 2025 (“Budget”). However, the Finance Bill, 2024 has not yet been enacted into law. The provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961 are proposed to be amended by the Finance (No.2) Bill, 2024 and the same would be effective only on receiving the assent of President of India. The Finance (No.2) Bill inter-alia proposes that the long term capital gain would be taxed at the rate of 12.5% without any indexation benefits. Similarly, the Finance (No.2) Bill proposes to increase short-term capital gains to 20% for transfer on or after July 23, 2024. In addition, unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment laws governing our business, operations, and group structure could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws or may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation, or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation, or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent, may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

Similarly, changes in other laws may require additional compliances and/or result in us incurring additional expenditure. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation, or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation, or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

Similarly, changes in other laws may require additional compliances and/or result in us incurring additional expenditure. For instance, the Government of India has notified four labour codes which are yet to come into force as of the date of this Prospectus, namely, (i) the Code on Wages, 2019, (ii) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020; (iii) the Code on Social Security, 2020; and (iv) the Occupational Safety, Health, and Working Conditions Code, 2020. Such codes will replace the existing legal framework governing rights of workers and labour relations. Once these codes are in force, we may be required to incur additional expenditure to ensure compliance with them. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations, and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation, or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation, or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent, may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

62. Financial instability in other countries may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets.

The Indian market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, including conditions in the United States, Europe, and certain emerging economies in Asia. Financial turmoil in Asia, United States, United Kingdom, Russia and elsewhere in the world in recent years has adversely affected the Indian economy. Any worldwide financial instability may cause increased volatility in the Indian financial markets and, directly or indirectly, adversely affect the Indian economy, financial sector, and us. Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby negatively affect the Indian economy. Financial disruptions could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Further, economic developments globally can have a significant impact on our principal markets. Concerns related to a trade war between large economies may lead to increased risk aversion and volatility in global capital markets and consequently have an impact on the Indian economy. In addition, China is one of India's major trading partners and there are rising concerns of a possible slowdown in the Chinese economy as well as a strained relationship with India, which could have an adverse impact on the trade relations between the two countries.

These developments, or the perception that any of them could occur, have had, and may continue to have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and the stability of global financial markets, and may significantly reduce global market liquidity, restrict the ability of key market participants to operate in certain financial markets or restrict our access to capital. This could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations and reduce the price of the Equity Shares.

63. If inflation were to rise in India, we might not be able to increase the prices of our services at a proportional rate thereby reducing our margins.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of transportation, wages, raw materials, and other expenses relevant to our business. High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to adequately pass on to our business associates, whether entirely or in part, and may adversely affect our business and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to reduce our costs or entirely offset any increases in costs with increases in prices for our products. In such a case, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected. Further, the Government has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

64. We may be affected by competition laws, the adverse application or interpretation of which could adversely affect our business.

The Competition Act, 2002, of India, as amended (“Competition Act”), regulates practices having an appreciable adverse effect on competition in the relevant market in India (“AAEC”). Under the Competition Act, any formal or informal arrangement, understanding, or action in concert, which causes or is likely to cause an AAEC is considered void and may result in the imposition of substantial penalties. Further, any agreement among competitors which directly or indirectly involves the determination of purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, supply, markets, technical development, investment, or the provision of services or shares the market or source of production or provision of services in any manner, including by way of allocation of geographical area or number of customers in the relevant market or directly or indirectly results in bid-rigging or collusive bidding is presumed to have an AAEC and is considered void. The Competition Act also prohibits abuse of a dominant position by any enterprise. On March 4, 2011, the Government notified and brought into force the combination regulation (merger control) provisions under the Competition Act with effect from June 1, 2011. These provisions require acquisitions of shares, voting rights, assets or control or mergers or amalgamations that cross the prescribed asset and turnover based thresholds to be mandatorily notified to and pre-approved by the Competition Commission of India (the “CCI”). Additionally, on May 11, 2011, the CCI issued Competition Commission of India (Procedure for Transaction of Business Relating to Combinations) Regulations, 2011, as amended, which sets out the mechanism for implementation of the merger control regime in India.

On April 11, 2023, the Competition (Amendment) Bill 2023 received the assent of the President of India to become the Competition (Amendment) Act, 2023 (“Competition Amendment Act”) amending the Competition Act and giving the CCI additional powers to prevent practices that harm competition and the interests of consumers. The Competition Amendment Act, inter alia, modifies the scope of certain factors used to determine AAEC, introduces a deal value threshold for mergers & acquisitions, reduces the overall time limit for the assessment of combinations by the CCI, changes the scope of anti-competitive agreements, broadens the definition of cartels, and empowers the CCI to impose penalties based on the global turnover of entities, for anti-competitive agreements and abuse of dominant position.

The Competition Act aims to, among others, prohibit all agreements and transactions which may have an AAEC in India. Consequently, all agreements entered by us could be within the purview of the Competition Act. Further, the CCI has extraterritorial powers and can investigate any agreements, abusive conduct, or combination occurring outside India if such agreement, conduct, or combination has an AAEC in India. However, the impact of the provisions of the Competition Act on the agreements entered by us cannot be predicted with certainty at this stage. However, since we pursue an acquisition driven growth strategy, we may be affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of the Competition Act, or any enforcement proceedings initiated by the CCI, or any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI or if any prohibition or substantial penalties are levied under the Competition Act, it would adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows, and prospects.

RISKS RELATING TO THE EQUITY SHARES AND THIS OFFER

65. Pursuant to listing of the Equity Shares, we may be subject to pre-emptive surveillance measures like Additional Surveillance Measure (ASM) and Graded Surveillance Measures (GSM) by the Stock Exchanges in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard the interest of investors.

On listing of our Equity Shares, we may be subject to general market conditions which may include significant price and volume fluctuations. The price of our Equity Shares may also fluctuate after listing of our Equity Shares due to several factors such as volatility in the Indian and global securities markets, our profitability and performance, performance of our competitors, changes in the estimates of our performance or any political or economic factors. The occurrence of any of the abovementioned factors may lead to us triggering the parameters listed by SEBI and/or the Stock Exchanges for placing securities under the GSM or ASM framework such as net worth and net fixed assets of securities, high low variation in securities, concentration of business associates, close to close price variation, market capitalization, variation in volume, delivery percentage and average unique PAN traded over a period of time. In the event our Equity Shares are covered under such surveillance measures implemented by SEBI and/or the Stock Exchanges, we may be subject to certain additional restrictions in relation to trading of our Equity Shares such as limiting trading frequency (for example, trading either allowed once in a week or a month) or freezing of price on upper side of trading which may have an adverse effect on the market price of our Equity Shares or may in general cause disruptions in the development of an active trading market for our Equity Shares.

66. Investors may not be able to enforce a judgment of a foreign court against us, our Directors, and executive officers in India respectively, except by way of a law suit in India.

We are incorporated under the laws of India and all of our Directors, Key Management Personnel and Senior Management Personnel reside in India. All of our assets are also located in India. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process upon our Company or such persons in jurisdictions outside India, or to enforce judgments obtained against such parties outside India. Furthermore, it is unlikely that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if that court was of the view that the number of damages awarded was excessive or inconsistent with public policy, or if judgments are in breach or contrary to Indian law. In addition, a party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain approval from the RBI to execute such a judgment or to repatriate outside India any amounts recovered.

Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments is provided for under Section 13 and Section 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (“CPC”). India is not a party to any international treaty in relation to the recognition or enforcement of foreign judgments. India has reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters with only a limited number of jurisdictions, such as the United Kingdom, United Arab Emirates, Singapore, and Hong Kong. In order to be enforceable, a judgment from a jurisdiction with reciprocity must meet certain requirements established in the CPC. The CPC only permits the enforcement and execution of monetary decrees in the reciprocating jurisdiction, not being in the nature of any amounts payable in respect of taxes, other charges, fines, or penalties. Judgments or decrees from jurisdictions which do not have reciprocal recognition with India, including the United States, cannot be enforced by proceedings in India. Therefore, a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any court in a non-reciprocating territory for civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the general laws of the non-reciprocating territory, would not be directly enforceable in India. The party in whose favour a final foreign judgment in a non-reciprocating territory is rendered may bring a fresh suit in a competent court in India based on the final judgment within three years of obtaining such final judgment. However, it is unlikely that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action were brought in India or that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it viewed the number of damages as excessive or inconsistent with the public policy in India. Further, there is no assurance that a suit brought in an Indian court in relation to a foreign judgment will be disposed of in a timely manner. In addition, any person seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain the prior approval of the RBI to repatriate any amount recovered, and we cannot assure that such approval will be forthcoming within a reasonable period of time, or at all, or that conditions of such approval would be acceptable. Such an amount may also be subject to income tax in accordance with applicable law.

67. The trading volume and market price of the Equity Shares may be volatile following the Offer.

The market price of the Equity Shares may fluctuate as a result of, among other things, the following factors, some of which are beyond our control:

- quarterly variations in our results of operations;
- results of operations that vary from the expectations of securities analysts and investors;
- results of operations that vary from those of our competitors;
- changes in expectations as to our future financial performance, including financial estimates by research analysts and investors;
- a change in research analysts’ recommendations;
- announcements by us or our competitors of significant acquisitions, strategic alliances, joint operations or capital commitments;
- announcements by third parties or governmental entities of significant claims or proceedings against us;
- new laws and governmental regulations applicable to our industry;
- additions or departures of key management personnel;
- changes in exchange rates;

- fluctuations in stock market prices and volume; and
- general economic and stock market conditions.

Changes in relation to any of the factors listed above could adversely affect the price of the Equity Shares.

68. Fluctuation in the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and foreign currencies may have an adverse effect on the value of our Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

On listing, our Equity Shares will be quoted in Indian Rupees on the Stock Exchange. Any dividends in respect of our Equity Shares will also be paid in Indian Rupees and subsequently converted into the relevant foreign currency for repatriation if required. Any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during the time taken for such conversion may reduce the net dividend to foreign investors. In addition, any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during a delay in repatriating the proceeds from a sale of Equity Shares outside India, for example, because of a delay in regulatory approvals that may be required for the sale of Equity Shares may reduce the proceeds received by Shareholders. For example, the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and the U.S. dollar has fluctuated substantially in recent years and may continue to fluctuate substantially in the future, which may have an adverse effect on the returns on our Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

69. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws, unless specifically exempted, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares in an Indian company are generally taxable in India. A securities transaction tax (“STT”) is levied on and collected by an Indian stock exchange on which equity shares are sold. Any capital gain exceeding ₹100,000, realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for more than 12 months immediately preceding the date of transfer, may be subject to long-term capital gains tax in India at the rate of 10% (plus applicable surcharge and health and education cess). This beneficial provision is, inter alia, subject to payment of STT. Further, any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares in an Indian company, held for more than 12 months, which are sold using any platform other than a recognized stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, will be subject to long term capital gains tax in India at the rate of 10% (plus applicable surcharge and health and education cess), without indexation benefits.

Further, any gain realized on the sale of the Equity Shares held for a period of 12 months or less immediately preceding the date of transfer will be subject to short-term capital gains tax in India at the rate of 15% (plus applicable surcharge and health and education cess), subject to STT being paid at the time of sale of such shares. Otherwise, such gains will be taxed at the applicable rates.

While non-residents may claim tax treaty benefits in relation to such capital gains income, generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India’s right to impose tax on capital gains arising from the sale of shares of an Indian company. As a result, non-resident investors may be liable for tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain realized upon the sale of the Equity Shares. Investors are advised to consult their own tax advisors and to carefully consider the potential tax consequences of owning Equity Shares.

The stamp duty for transfer of certain securities, other than debentures, on a delivery basis is currently specified at 0.015% and on a non-delivery basis is specified at 0.003% of the consideration amount.

Unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals.

70. Investors will not be able to sell immediately on an Indian stock exchange any of the Equity Shares they purchase in the Offer.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchanges. Pursuant to applicable Indian laws, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading in the Equity Shares may commence. Investors’ book entry, or ‘demat’ accounts with depository participants in India, are expected to be credited within one working day of the date on which the Basis of Allotment is approved by the Stock Exchange. The Allotment of Equity Shares in the Offer and the credit of such Equity Shares to the applicant’s demat account with depository participant could take approximately 2 Working Days from the Bid/ Offer Closing Date and trading in the Equity Shares upon receipt of final listing and trading approvals from the Stock Exchanges is expected to commence within 3 Working Days of the Bid/ Offer Closing Date. There could be a failure or delay in the listing of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchange. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval or otherwise commence trading in the Equity Shares would restrict investors' ability to dispose of their Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that the Equity Shares will be credited to investors' demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time periods specified in this risk factor. We could also be required to pay interest at the applicable rates if allotment is not made, refund orders are not dispatched or demat credits are not made to investors within the prescribed time periods.

71. Any future issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity-linked instruments by us may dilute your shareholding, and sale of Equity Shares by shareholders with significant shareholding may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

We may be required to finance our growth through future equity offerings. Any future equity issuances by us, including a primary offering of Equity Shares, convertible securities, or securities linked to Equity Shares including through the exercise of employee stock options, may lead to the dilution of investors' shareholdings in our Company. Any future equity issuances by us or sales of our Equity Shares by our shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through offering of our Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur may also affect the market price of our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that we will not issue Equity Shares, convertible securities, or securities linked to Equity Shares or that our Shareholders will not dispose of, pledge, or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

72. Under Indian law, foreign investors are subject to investment restrictions that limit our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Under foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain restrictions), if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or falls under any of the exceptions referred to above, then a prior regulatory approval will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India requires a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities.

In addition, pursuant to the Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020, issued by the DPIIT, which has been incorporated as the proviso to Rule 6(a) of the FEMA Non-debt Rules, all investments under the foreign direct investment route by entities of a country which shares a land border with India or where the beneficial owner of the Equity Shares is situated in or is a citizen of any such country, can only be made through the Government approval route, as prescribed in the Consolidated FDI Policy dated October 15, 2020 and the FEMA Rules. Further, in the event of a transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government of India.

We cannot assure investors that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all. For further information, see "Restrictions on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities" on page 306 of this Prospectus.

73. The Offer Price, market capitalization to revenue multiple based on the Offer Price of our Company, may not be indicative of the market price of the Company on listing or thereafter.

Our revenue from operations for Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, was ₹30,290.97 Lakhs, ₹24,666.47 Lakhs, and ₹14,125.12 Lakhs, respectively, and profit after tax for Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, was ₹1,935.27 Lakhs, ₹1,360.00 Lakhs, and ₹595.17 Lakhs, and our market capitalization to revenue from operations (Financial Year ended March 31, 2024) multiple is 1.09 times at the upper end of the Price Band. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares is proposed to be determined on the basis of assessment of market demand for the Equity Shares offered through the book-building process prescribed under the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, and certain quantitative and qualitative factors as set out in the section titled "Basis for Offer Price" on page 117 of this Prospectus and the Offer Price, multiples and ratios may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares on listing or thereafter.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation do not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares.

Accordingly, any valuation exercise undertaken for the purposes of the Offer by our Company and Promoter Selling Shareholder, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager, would not be based on a benchmark with our industry peers. The relevant financial parameters based on which the Price Band would be determined, shall be disclosed in the advertisement that would be issued for publication of the Price Band.

The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, announcements by third parties or governmental entities of significant claims or proceedings against us, volatility in the securities markets in India and other jurisdictions, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors.

For details in relation to average cost of acquisition and the track record of the Book Running Lead Manager, see “The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters and the Promoter Selling Shareholder may be less than the Offer Price.” on page 65 of this Prospectus, “Summary of the Offer Document - Average cost of acquisition for our Promoters and the Promoter Selling Shareholder” on page 20 of this Prospectus and “Other Regulatory and Statutory Disclosures - Track record of past issues handled by the Book Running Lead Manager” on page 259 of this Prospectus.

74. QIBs and Non-Institutional Bidders are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid amount) at any stage after submitting a bid, and Retail Individual Bidders are not permitted to withdraw their Bids after Bid/Offer Closing Date.

Pursuant to the SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Bidders are required to block the Bid amount on submission of the Bid and are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of equity shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Similarly, Retail Individual Bidders can revise or withdraw their Bids at any time during the Bid/Offer Period and until the Bid/ Offer Closing Date, but not thereafter. While we are required to complete all necessary formalities for listing and commencement of trading of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchange where such Equity Shares are proposed to be listed, including Allotment, within 3 Working Days from the Bid/ Offer Closing Date or such other period as may be prescribed by the SEBI, events affecting the investors’ decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations, cash flows or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment.

We may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events may limit the investors’ ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing. Therefore, QIBs and Non-Institutional Bidders will not be able to withdraw or lower their bids following adverse developments in international or national monetary policy, financial, political, or economic conditions, our business, results of operations, cash flows, or otherwise between the dates of submission of their Bids and Allotment.

75. Holders of Equity Shares may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby may suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, a company having share capital and incorporated in India must offer its holders of equity shares pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of equity shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages before the issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by the adoption of a special resolution. However, if the laws of the jurisdiction the investors are located in does not permit them to exercise their pre-emptive rights without our filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, the investors will be unable to exercise their pre-emptive rights unless we make such a filing. If we elect not to file a registration statement, the new securities may be issued to a custodian, who may sell the securities for the investor’s benefit. The value the custodian receives on the sale of such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. In addition, to the extent that the investors are unable to exercise pre-emption rights granted in respect of the Equity Shares held by them, their proportional interest in us would be reduced.

76. A third-party could be prevented from acquiring control of us post this Offer, because of anti-takeover provisions under Indian law.

As a listed Indian entity, there are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter, or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company. Under the SEBI (SAST) Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that the interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third party from attempting to take control of our Company subsequent to completion of the Offer. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to our shareholders, such a takeover may not be attempted or consummated because of SEBI (SAST) Regulations.

77. Rights of shareholders of companies under Indian law may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Our Articles of Association, the composition of our Board, Indian laws governing our corporate affairs, the validity of corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties, responsibilities and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights under Indian law may not be as extensive and widespread as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may face challenges in asserting their rights as shareholder of our Company than as a shareholder of an entity in another jurisdiction.

The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	₹24.00/-	500	16.67%
1,000	₹23.00/-	1,500	50.00%

Assumptions for our estimated working capital requirement:

Particulars	Holding level (in Days)				Justification for Holding
	As per the Restated Financial Statement for the Financial Year ending March 31			Projected for the Financial Year ending March 31, 2025
Inventories	106	74	56	52	Company aims to optimize the inventory holding period from 74 days in the Financial Year ended March 31, 2023, to 52 days of Financial Year ended March 31, 2025. It is mainly due to growth in Revenue from Operation in Financial Year ended March 31, 2024, and further estimated growth in Financial Year ended March 31, 2025.
Trade Receivables	66	59	64	62	Company aims to marginally increasing credit to the customer by 4-5 days in Financial Year ended March 31, 2024 and Financial Year ended March 31, 2025, as compared to Financial Year ended March 31, 2023, to achieve estimated top line.
Trade Payables	47	62	49	42	Company intends to reduce trade payable from 62 days in Financial Year ended March 31, 2023, to 42 days during Financial Year ended March 31, 2025, to competitive purchase price to increase overall profitability of our Company.

holding level is due to the increase in working capital requirements for the Financial Year ended March 31, 2023, as detailed on page number 115 of this Prospectus.*

The table below sets forth the key assumptions for our Working Capital projections:

Sr. No.	Particulars	Assumptions (No. of days)
1.	Inventories	Inventories include raw materials, WIP, Stores and Spares and Waste etc. The historical holding days of inventories has been 106 days, 74 days and 56 days for the financial year ended March 31, 2022, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2024, respectively. Company estimates inventories holding days to be around 52 days in Fiscal 2025. Company is increasing its manufacturing product base and at the same time aims to effectively do the churning of inventory under its product portfolio.
2.	Trade receivables	The historical holding days of trade receivables has been 66 days, 59 days and 64 days for the financial year ended March 31, 2022, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2024, respectively. During F.Y. 2024-25, Management is confident to achieve increased sales, keeping the same holding level of FY 2023-24. The projected increase in trade receivables days from FY 2022-23 is a strategic decision aimed at fostering higher sales growth. We intend to provide our customers with extended credit periods, allowing them more time to settle their invoices. By offering this flexibility, we expect to stimulate increased sales volume and foster stronger customer relationships
3.	Trade payables	Past trend of Trade payables holding days has been 47 days, 62 days and 49 days for the financial year ended March 31, 2022, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2024, respectively. However, with additional working capital funding, our Company intends to reduce trade payable to 42 days during Fiscal 2025 to avail cash discount as well as competitive purchase price to increase overall profitability of our Company. By reducing the time, it takes to settle our payables we aim to negotiate more favourable terms and conditions with our suppliers, enabling us to access competitive pricing for the goods we procure.

Apart from above there are other working capital requirements such as Cash and Cash Equivalents, Other Current assets, loans and advances, short term provisions and other current liabilities. Details of which are given below:

Further Cash and Cash equivalents was ₹571.92 Lakhs in FY 2023-24, and estimated to be ₹750.00 Lakhs in 2024-25 respectively and the same is justified with increase revenue growth. Cash and Cash Equivalent includes Cash in Hand, Fixed Deposit against BG issued, and Current/OD (Debit) Balances.
Short term Loans & Advances	In order to meet timely supply of raw material and maintain favourable relations with the suppliers, historically 88 to 95% of Short term loan and advances is consisting of Advance to Supplier. Other Current Assets	Other Current Assets consist of prepaid expenses & balance with revenue authorities. The same is in line with the previous years.
Other Current Liabilities	Other Current Liabilities consist of Advance received from Customers, statutory Payables such as PF, ESIC payable, TDS/TCS payable, staff salary payable and other current liabilities. Other Current Liabilities is in line with the sales over the years, and the same has been continued in the estimates.
Short- term Provisions	Short term provisions consist of Income tax Provisions net of Advance tax and TDS and Provision for Gratuity.

Our working capital requirements as a % of our revenue from operations was 26.61% and 24.26% in Fiscal 2023 and Fiscal 2024 which is projected to become 29.16% of our revenue from operations in 2025.

Detailed rationale for increase in working capital requirement

Justification for Increased Working Capital requirement in FY 2024-25 as compared to FY 2023-24

We are required to incur certain upfront costs to be able to manufacture our product and supply to our customers from the beginning of the Purchase Order. These include costs towards raw materials, manpower, power and fuel, Import Duties and Import IGST, taxes etc required from the first day of commencement of such purchase order. The salary and employee-related statutory payments which are due on the day of completion of the deployed month, are also required to be paid. As we typically invoice our customers on supply of product, such cash outflows are borne upfront by us, prior to any receipt of payment from our customers. The invoices become due and payable only after the agreed credit period from the date of the invoice, as per the terms of the respective purchase order, which is typically received within 60-65 days.

Further to secure uninterrupted raw material supplies, we have to make the advance payment to them so the regular supply of raw material is ensured. Management is planning to achieve the estimated growth by way of supplying product to higher voltage transformer segment to capture large market size which shall be sold out on 4-7 days extended credit period to enable customers to accept the new segment as above and support the Revenue growth of the Company. In brief additional working capital gap for the FY 24-25 shall be deployed in below given broad heads.

The planned expansion of Unit - 2, which is scheduled to become operational by September/ October, will have a significant impact on the company's working capital requirements. This expansion involves not only the physical infrastructure but also the acquisition of new machinery and testing equipment, which will enhance the production capacity and operational efficiency. However, it is crucial to recognize that this increased capacity will necessitate additional working capital.

- Advance to Suppliers to ensure uninterrupted production
- Increased requirement of Inventory due to higher voltage transfer segment inclusion
- Increase in Trade Receivable due to extended period of credit
- Reduction in trade payables holding level to take the benefit of the favourable product pricing and other cash discounts.

Our Company proposes to utilise up to ₹4,300 Lakhs from the Net IPO Proceeds towards funding its working capital requirements in Financial Year 2024-25. Basis of the Management estimate of Revenue growth, Accounts

Receivable/Accounts Payables/ Inventory Holding period for the FY 2024-25, It is estimated that additional working capital gap requirement will be of ₹6482.07 Lakhs which shall be funded out of internal accrual and IPO proceeds.

The estimated working capital gap is ₹7,348.62 Lakhs and ₹13,122.07 Lakhs as on the end of FY 2023-24 and FY 2024-25 respectively. The Incremental working Capital gap is ₹76.54 Lakhs and ₹6482.07 Lakhs in FY 2023-24 and FY 2024-25 respectively which is mainly due to increased working capital requirement in trade receivable, Increased demand of Inventory, and reduction in trade payables holding level and increased advance to suppliers. Working capital to turnover ratio is 26.61%, 21.55% and 29.16% for the FY 2022-23, 2023-24 and 2024-25 respectively. Management has estimated for the FY 2024-25 that working capital to turnover ratio will be slightly relaxed to accommodate entry into higher voltage transformer segment leading to increased credit to customers therefore the ratio is expected to slip down from 21.55 % to 29.16% from FY 2023-24 to FY 2024-25, however the same is almost nearby to FY 2022-23 ratio.

The reasons for increase in working capital requirement in FY 23 as compared with FY 22

The working capital gap is ₹4794.47 Lakhs and ₹6563.46 Lakhs as on the end of FY 2021-22 and FY 2022-23 respectively. The Incremental working Capital gap is ₹1769.00 Lakhs which is mainly deployed in trade receivable and reduction in trade payables holding level. Working capital to turnover ratio improved from 33.94 % in FY 2021-22 to 26.61% in FY 2022-23.

Global Economic Overview

The baseline forecast is for global growth to slow from 3.5 percent in 2022 to 3.0 percent in 2023 and 2.9 percent in 2024, well below the historical (2000–19) average of 3.8 percent. Advanced economies are expected to slow from 2.6 percent in 2022 to 1.5 percent in 2023 and 1.4 percent in 2024 as policy tightening starts to bite. Emerging market and developing economies are projected to have a modest decline in growth from 4.1 percent in 2022 to 4.0 percent in both 2023 and 2024. Global inflation is forecast to decline steadily, from 8.7 percent in 2022 to 6.9 percent in 2023 and 5.8 percent in 2024, due to tighter monetary policy aided by lower international commodity prices. Core inflation is generally projected to decline more gradually, and inflation is not expected to return to target until 2025 in most cases.

Monetary policy actions and frameworks are key at the current juncture to keep inflation expectations anchored. It emphasizes the complementary role of monetary policy frameworks, including communication strategies, in helping achieve disinflation at a lower cost to output through managing agents' inflation expectations. Given increasing concerns about geoeconomics fragmentation.

Resilient Global Economy Is Limping Along, with Growing Divergences

The global economy continues to recover slowly from the blows of the pandemic, Russia’s invasion of Ukraine, and the cost-of-living crisis. In retrospect, the resilience has been remarkable. Despite the disruption in energy and food markets caused by the war, and the unprecedented tightening of global monetary conditions to combat decades-high inflation, the global economy has slowed, but not stalled. Yet growth remains slow and uneven, with growing global divergences. The global economy is limping along, not sprinting.

According to the projections, global growth will slow from 3.5 percent in 2022 to 3 percent this year and 2.9 percent next year, a 0.1 percentage point downgrade for 2024 from our July projections. This remains well below the historical average. Headline inflation continues to decelerate, from 9.2 percent in 2022, on a year-over-year basis, to 5.9 percent this year and 4.8 percent in 2024. Core inflation, excluding food and energy prices, is also projected to decline, albeit more gradually than headline inflation, to 4.5 percent in 2024.

As a result, projections are increasingly consistent with a “soft landing” scenario, bringing inflation down without a major downturn in activity, especially in the United States, where the forecast increase in unemployment is very modest, from 3.6 to 3.9 percent by 2025.

Growing Global Divergences

After a strong initial rebound from the depths of the COVID-19 pandemic, the pace of recovery has moderated. Several forces are holding back the recovery. Some reflect the long-term consequences of the pandemic, Russia’s war in Ukraine, and increasing geoeconomics fragmentation. Others are more cyclical, including the effects of monetary policy tightening necessary to reduce inflation, withdrawal of fiscal support amid high debt, and extreme weather events. Despite signs of economic resilience earlier this year and progress in reducing headline inflation, economic activity is still generally falling short of pre pandemic (January 2020) projections, especially in emerging market and developing economies (Figure 1.1, panel 1).

The strongest recovery among major economies has been in the United States, where GDP in 2023 is estimated to exceed its pre pandemic path. The euro area has recovered, though less strongly—with output still 2.2 percent below pre pandemic projections, reflecting greater exposure to the war in Ukraine and the associated adverse terms-of-trade shock, as well as a spike in imported energy prices. In China, the pandemic-related slowdown in 2022 and the property sector crisis contribute to the larger output losses of about 4.2 percent, compared with pre pandemic predictions. Other emerging market and developing economies have seen even weaker recoveries, especially low-income countries, where output losses average more than 6.5 percent. Higher interest rates and depreciated currencies have exacerbated the difficulties of low-income countries, placing more than half either at high risk of distress or already in distress. Overall, global output for 2023 is estimated at 3.4 percent (or about $ 3.6 trillion in 2023 prices) below pre pandemic projections. Private consumption has also recovered faster in advanced economies than in emerging market and developing economies, owing to an earlier reopening in the former group facilitated by greater availability of effective vaccines, stronger safety nets, more ample policy stimulus, and greater feasibility of remote work. These factors supported livelihoods during the pandemic, and household consumption is now broadly back to pre-pandemic trends. Among advanced economies, private consumption has been stronger in the United States than in the euro area, with households receiving larger fiscal transfers early in the pandemic and spending the associated savings more quickly; being better insulated from the rise in energy prices resulting from the war in Ukraine; and feeling relatively confident amid historically tight US labor markets, which have supported real disposable incomes (Figure 1.1, panel 2). Among emerging market and developing economies, the consumption shortfall is particularly large in China, reflecting tight restrictions on mobility during the COVID-19 crisis.

Investment, on the other hand, has uniformly fallen short of pre pandemic trends across regions. Businesses have shown less enthusiasm for expansion and risk taking amid rising interest rates, withdrawal of fiscal support, dimmer prospects for product demand, stricter lending conditions, and growing uncertainties 75 million to 95 million more people were living in extreme poverty in 2022 compared with pre pandemic estimates. Spikes in food prices and related insecurities following

Russia’s invasion of Ukraine, as well as bouts of extreme weather, have accentuated these difficulties. The global average temperature in July 2023 was the highest on record for any month, amid reports of catastrophic flooding, heat waves, and wildfires in many regions. Overall, the global prevalence of undernourishment is significantly higher than before the pandemic (FAO and others 2023).

Resilient Start to 2023, Signs of Slowdown

Despite these persistent challenges, several headwinds to global growth subsided earlier this year. The World Health Organization announced in May that it no longer considered COVID-19 a global health emergency, and infections and hospitalizations appear to remain relatively limited, despite a recent uptick in some regions. Supply chains, which the pandemic disrupted, have largely normalized, with shipping costs and suppliers’ delivery times back to pre-pandemic levels. And global financial conditions eased after Swiss and US authorities took strong action in March to contain turbulence in their banking sectors.

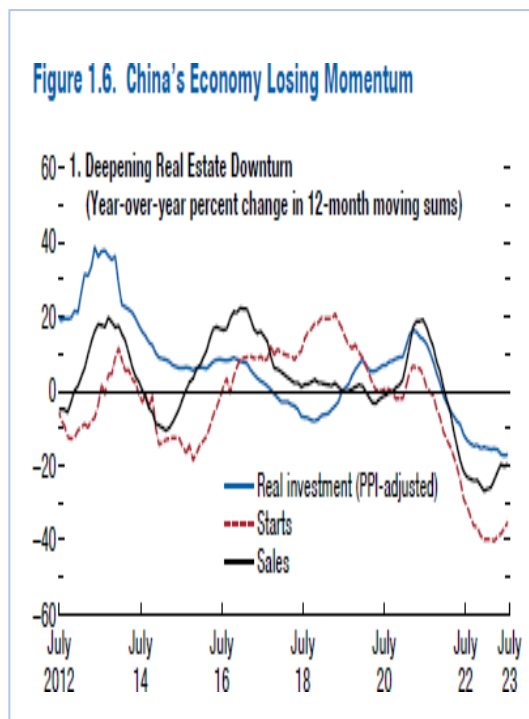

Amid these conditions, global GDP expanded by 3.4 percent in the second quarter of 2023 compared with a year earlier outperforming forecasts, including those in the April 2023 WEO. The resilience reflected strong consumption amid tight labor markets in the United States and robust activity in economies with large travel and tourism sectors, such as Italy, Mexico, and Spain. These developments offset a slowdown in more interest-rate-sensitive manufacturing sectors.

China: Slower Growth

China’s growth momentum is fading following a COVID-19 reopening surge in early 2023. Growth slowed from 8.9 percent in the first quarter of 2023 (seasonally adjusted annualized quarterly rate) to 4.0 percent in the second quarter. With ample economic slack and declining energy and food prices, inflation fell to an estimated 0.2 percent (year over year) in the second quarter of 2023. Country Garden China’s largest property developer and a major beneficiary of government support—is facing severe liquidity stress, a sign that real estate distress is spreading to stronger developers, despite policy easing measures. Meanwhile, real estate investment and housing prices continue to decline, putting pressure on local governments’ revenues from land sales and threatening already fragile public finances. Commodity exporters and countries that are part of the Asian industrial supply chain are the most exposed to China’s loss of momentum.

Indian Economy Overview

Introduction

Strong economic growth in the first quarter of FY23 helped India overcome the UK to become the fifth-largest economy after it recovered from the COVID-19 pandemic shock. Real GDP at constant prices in the second quarter of 2022–23 is estimated at US$ 1.94 trillion (Rs. 160.06 trillion), showing a growth of 7.2% as compared to the First Revised Estimates of GDP for the year 2021-22 of US$ 1.81 trillion (Rs. 149.26 trillion), indicating a strong start for India's recovery from the pandemic. Given the release of pent-up demand and the widespread vaccination coverage, the contact-intensive services sector will probably be the main driver of development in 2022–2023. In FY22, India's service exports stood at US$ 254.4 billion. Furthermore, India's overall exports (services and merchandise) was estimated at US$ 770.18 billion in FY23. Rising employment and substantially increasing private consumption, supported by rising consumer sentiment, will support GDP growth in the coming months.

Future capital spending of the government in the economy is expected to be supported by factors such as tax buoyancy, the streamlined tax system with low rates, a thorough assessment and rationalization of the tariff structure, and the digitization of tax filing. In the medium run, increased capital spending on infrastructure and asset-building projects is set to increase growth multipliers, and with the revival in monsoon and the Kharif sowing, agriculture is also picking up momentum. The contact-based services sector has largely demonstrated promise to boost growth by unleashing the pent-up demand over the period of April-December 2022. The sector's success is being captured by a number of HFIs (High-Frequency Indicators) that are performing well, indicating the beginnings of a comeback.

India has emerged as the fastest-growing major economy in the world and is expected to be one of the top three economic powers in the world over the next 10-15 years, backed by its robust democracy and strong partnerships.

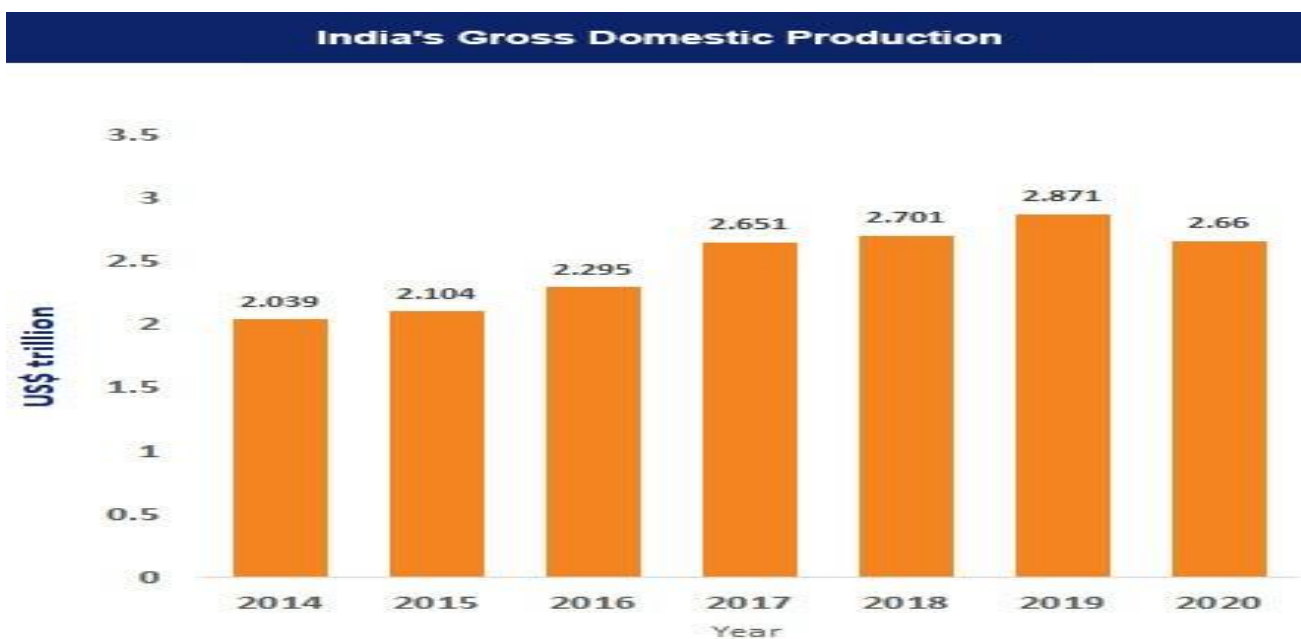

India's appeal as a destination for investments has grown stronger and more sustainable as a result of the current period of global unpredictability and volatility, and the record amounts of money raised by India-focused funds in 2022 are evidence of investor faith in the "Invest in India" narrative.

Market Size

India's nominal gross domestic product (GDP) at current prices is estimated to be at US$ 3.31 trillion (Rs. 272.41 trillion) in FY22. Additionally, the Nominal GDP at current prices in Q3 of 2022-23 was US$ 874.84 billion (Rs. 71.82 trillion), as against US$ 792.3 billion (Rs. 65.05 trillion) in 2021-22, estimating a growth of 10.4%. With 115 unicorns valued at more than US$ 350 billion, as of February 2023, India presently has the third-largest unicorn base in the world. The government is also focusing on renewable sources by achieving 40% of its energy from non-fossil sources by 2030. India is committed to achieving the country's ambition of Net Zero Emissions by 2070 through a five-pronged strategy, 'Panchamrit'. Moreover, India ranked 3rd in the renewable energy country attractive index.

According to the McKinsey Global Institute, India needs to boost its rate of employment growth and create 90 million non-farm jobs between 2023 and 2030 in order to increase productivity and economic growth. The net employment rate needs to grow by 1.5% per annum from 2023 to 2030 to achieve 8-8.5% GDP growth between 2023 and 2030. India's current account deficit (CAD), primarily driven by an increase in the trade deficit, stood at US$ 1.3 billion, 0.2% of GDP in the fourth quarter of FY23.

Exports fared remarkably well during the pandemic and aided recovery when all other growth engines were losing steam in terms of their contribution to GDP. Going forward, the contribution of merchandise exports may waver as several of India's trade partners witness an economic slowdown. According to Mr. Piyush Goyal, Minister of Commerce and Industry, Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution and Textiles, Indian exports are expected to reach US$ 1 trillion by 2030.

Recent Developments

India is primarily a domestic demand-driven economy, with consumption and investments contributing to 70% of the economic activity. With an improvement in the economic scenario and the Indian economy recovering from the Covid-19 pandemic shock, several investments and developments have been made across various sectors of the economy. According to World Bank, India must continue to prioritize lowering inequality while also putting growth-oriented policies into place to boost the economy. In view of this, there have been some developments that have taken place in the recent past. Some of them are mentioned below.

- As of January 6, 2023, India's foreign exchange reserves stood at US$ 561,583 million.

- Merchandise exports in March 2023 stood at US$ 38.38 billion, with total merchandise export of US$ 447.46 billion during the period of April-March 2023. The overall exports (merchandise and service exports) in 2022-23 was estimated at US$ 770.18, exhibiting a positive growth of 13.84%.

Moreover, in the budget 2022-23, direct payment of (Maximum Selling Price) MSP was launched that estimated to be US$ 31.74 billion (Rs. 2.37 trillion) in order to boost farmers' income.

Government Initiatives

Over the years, the Indian government has introduced many initiatives to strengthen the nation's economy. The Indian government has been effective in developing policies and programmes that are not only beneficial for citizens to improve their financial stability but also for the overall growth of the economy. Over recent decades, India's rapid economic growth has led to a substantial increase in its demand for exports. Besides this, a number of the government's flagship programmes, including Make in India, Start-up India, Digital India, the Smart City Mission, and the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation, is aimed at creating immense opportunities in India. - The Government of India is expected to increase public health spending to 2.5% of the GDP by 2025.

Road Ahead

In the second quarter of FY23, the growth momentum of the first quarter was sustained, and high-frequency indicators (HFIs) performed well in July and August of 2022. India's comparatively strong position in the external sector reflects the country's generally positive outlook for economic growth and rising employment rates. India ranked fifth in foreign direct investment inflows among the developed and developing nations listed for the first quarter of 2022.

India's economic story during the first half of the current financial year highlighted the unwavering support the government gave to its capital expenditure, which, in FY23 (until August 2022), stood 46.8% higher than the same period last year. The ratio of revenue expenditure to capital outlay decreased from 6.4 in the previous year to 4.5 in the current year, signaling a clear change in favor of higher-quality spending. Stronger revenue generation because of improved tax compliance, increased profitability of the company, and increasing economic activity also contributed to rising capital spending levels.

Since India's resilient growth despite the global pandemic, India's exports climbed at the second-highest rate with a year-over-year (YoY) growth of 8.39% in merchandise exports and a 29.82% growth in service exports till April 2023. With a reduction in port congestion, supply networks are being restored. The CPI-C inflation reduction from June 2022 already reflects the impact. In June 2023 (Provisional), CPI-C inflation was 4.81%, down from 7.01% in June 2022. With a proactive set of administrative actions by the government, flexible monetary policy, and a softening of global commodity prices and supply-chain bottlenecks, inflationary pressures in India look to be on the decline overall.

Global Manufacturing Industry

Manufacturing is the use of labor, goods, and machines to produce goods for use or for sale. Manufacturing sector covers work performed in electronics industry, mechanical industry, energy industries, food and beverage industries, plastic industry, metalworking industries, transport, and telecommunications industries, chemical or physical transformation of materials, substances, or components into new products. The process of assembling of components or parts of manufactured products also falls into the bracket of manufacturing unless the activity is appropriately put into construction. Construction on the other hand primarily covers works encompassing construction of buildings or assembling of infrastructure (for e.g. highways and utility systems). All those companies performing work in the preparation of sites for new construction and those involved in subdividing land for sale as building sites also are included in construction.

Manufacturing uses raw materials that are products of agriculture, bakery, fishing, forestry, mining, and other products of manufacturing operations. Plants, factories, or mills that use power-driven machines and materials-handling equipment, transform the raw materials into new finished products and components requiring further manufacturing. On the other hand, construction market includes new work, maintenance or repairs. Production responsibilities are specified contractually with constructions owners (prime contractors) or contracts with subcontractors.

Manufacturing industries are the chief wealth generating sectors of any economy. These industries adopt various technologies and methods widely known as manufacturing process management. Manufacturing industries are important for an economy as they employ a huge share of the labor force and produce materials required by sectors of strategic importance such as national infrastructure and defense. Some of the industries we cover under manufacturing are aerospace, agriculture, defense, environmental services like air purification, glass, lighting, paper and forest products, machinery, metals (like aluminum, copper, exotic metals, iron and steel, non-ferrous metals, and precious metals), mining, minerals, packaging, and textiles.

The world manufacturing industries in a capitalist economy indulge in mass production and make them available as earning profits. Manufacturing in collectivist economy is guided by a state-run agency for making available the manufactured goods depending on the requirement. Manufacturing industry in a modern economy operates under regulations framed by the Government.

The manufacturing industry accounts for a significant share of the industrial sector in developed countries. The final products can either serves as a finished good for sale to customers or as intermediate goods used in the production process. Manufacturing industries are essential for an economy as they employ a huge share of the labor force and produce materials required by sectors of strategic importance such as national infrastructure and defense. However, not all manufacturing industries are beneficial to the nation as some of them generate negative externalities with huge social costs. The cost of letting such industries flourish may even exceed the benefits generated by them.

According to some economists, manufacturing industry is a wealth-producing sector of an economy, whereas a service sector tends to be wealth-consuming. With the current euro zone deepening, U.S. factory output grows, bucking global trend, UK factories sluggish, political glitches from China the manufacturing outcome on account of dependency of the above countries has ever since seen to be declining.

Against the trend, manufacturing activity in the U.K. and the U.S. picked up speed, but slumps in factory output in Europe and Asia raised questions about the sustainability of the rebound, given a forward-looking measure of demand in the U.S. data still pointed to contraction. Global GDP is expected to grow 3.2 percent in 2011 before edging up to 3.6 percent in 2012.

Although solid growth led by developing-countries is the most likely outcome going forward, high food prices, possible additional oil-price spikes, and lingering post-crisis difficulties in high-income countries pose downside risks.

An escalating debt crisis in the Eurozone, combined with stagnating U.S. economic growth, now constitutes a clear and present danger to the world economic rebound. Slow U.S. domestic demand and weak global growth are expected to take their toll on U.S. export and import demand. Annual U.S. export growth is predicted to slow from 11.3 percent during 2010 to 8.1 percent during 2011 and then further to 7.7 percent in 2012. The slowdown in U.S. import growth is anticipated to be even more pronounced, dropping from 12.5 percent in 2010 to 5.1 percent in 2011 and to 3.1 percent in 2012.

Indian Manufacturing Industry

Introduction

Manufacturing is emerging as an integral pillar in the country's economic growth, thanks to the performance of key sectors like automotive, engineering, chemicals, pharmaceuticals, and consumer durables. The Indian manufacturing industry generated 16-17% of India's GDP pre-pandemic and is projected to be one of the fastest growing sectors.

The machine tool industry was literally the nuts and bolts of the manufacturing industry in India. Today, technology has stimulated innovation with digital transformation a key aspect in gaining an edge in this highly competitive market.

Technology has today encouraged creativity, with digital transformation being a critical element in gaining an advantage in this increasingly competitive industry. The Indian manufacturing sector is steadily moving toward more automated and process-driven manufacturing, which is projected to improve efficiency and enhance productivity.

India has the capacity to export goods worth US$ 1 trillion by 2030 and is on the road to becoming a major global manufacturing hub.

With 17% of the nation's GDP and over 27.3 million workers, the manufacturing sector plays a significant role in the Indian economy. Through the implementation of different programmes and policies, the Indian government hopes to have 25% of the economy's output come from manufacturing by 2025.

India now has the physical and digital infrastructure to raise the share of the manufacturing sector in the economy and make a realistic bid to be an important player in global supply chains.

A globally competitive manufacturing sector is India's greatest potential to drive economic growth and job creation this decade. Due to factors like power growth, long-term employment prospects, and skill routes for millions of people, India has a significant potential to engage in international markets. Several factors contribute to their potential. First off, these value chains are well positioned to benefit from India's advantages in terms of raw materials, industrial expertise, and entrepreneurship.

Second, they can take advantage of four market opportunities: expanding exports, localizing imports, internal demand, and contract manufacturing. With digital transformation being a crucial component in achieving an advantage in this fiercely competitive industry, technology has today sparked creativity. Manufacturing sector in India is gradually shifting to a more automated and process driven manufacturing which is expected to increase the efficiency and boost production of the manufacturing industry.

India is gradually progressing on the road to Industry 4.0 through the Government of India's initiatives like the National Manufacturing Policy which aims to increase the share of manufacturing in GDP to 25 percent by 2025 and the PLI scheme for manufacturing which was launched in 2022 to develop the core manufacturing sector at par with global manufacturing standards.

Manufacturing has emerged as one of the high growth sectors in India. Prime Minister of India, Mr. Narendra Modi, launched the 'Make in India' program to place India on the world map as a manufacturing hub and give global recognition to the Indian economy. Government aims to create 100 million new jobs in the sector by 2022.

Global Power And Distribution Industry

Introduction

Discoms are increasing efforts to maintain reliable networks to power home offices, home schooling, and are timely charging power distribution devices to ensure connectivity among individuals during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Digital control panels are easily programmable and help to implement complex control techniques. However, there is a need of training in order to operate digital control panels. Hence, companies in the power distribution component market should ramp-up their services, offer training to field professionals, and increase awareness about advantages such as prevention of signal loss during analog to digital conversion. Intelligent power distribution techniques help to deliver smart circuit protection of panelboards and switchboards.

Overview

According to Transparency Market Research's latest research report on the global power distribution component market for the historical period 2019 and the forecast period 2020–2030, usage of power distribution components in residential and commercial sectors and surge in construction & infrastructural activities are expected to boost the global power distribution component market during the forecast period.

In terms of revenue, the global power distribution component market is expected to reach the value of US$ 15.3 Bn by 2030, expanding at a CAGR of 6% during the forecast period. Based on application, the commercial segment dominated the global power distribution component market in 2019. Increase in investments in commercial buildings, primarily in developing economies, is anticipated to propel the commercial segment of the global power distribution component market in the near future.

Increase in Access to Electricity

Global electrification rates reached 89.95% in 2019; however, around 770 million people are still without access to electricity. The progress amounts to an average annual electrification rate of 0.8%, and newly gained access for more than 920 million people since 2010. The electrification trend began to accelerate in 2015. An additional 153 million people received electricity at an annual rate of more than 1% yearly between 2015 and 2017.

Key strategies for increasing access to electricity include data-based decision-making and advanced policy-planning frameworks, private sector financing, and efforts to extend rural electrification and cope with urban densification. Various strategies adopted to increase the access to electricity are boosting the demand for power distribution component, as power distribution component divides an electrical power feed into subsidiary circuits, while providing a protective fuse or circuit breaker for each circuit in a common enclosure.

Rise in Applications of Power Distribution Component in Residential & Commercial Sectors

- Power distribution components play a pivotal role in commercial, residential, and industrial sectors, as they are used to distribute electricity in residential and commercial establishments
- The global construction industry expanded by 3% in 2019, after 3.5% in 2018 and 2.7% in 2017. Thus, growth in construction and infrastructure activities is likely to boost the demand for power distribution components over the next few years.
- Many countries across the globe are facing high costs associated with disruptions and Customer Minutes Lost (CML). The level of investment needed to maintain and upgrade the electricity network is also high. Energy distribution and generating facilities need to work in accordance with 'future proof' networks, as more coal plants are decommissioned. Renewable and nuclear power are likely to continue to play a bigger role in power generation in the near future. There is also a growing need for new technologies and fuel choices to be integrated into the grid (such as smart grid) in the future.
- Demand for smart power distribution components is directly linked with the adoption of the smart grid technology, as implementation of smart grid technologies require the integration of energy efficient solutions such as smart panels that can distribute electricity effectively. Thus, adoption of smart grids is estimated to create opportunities for the global power distribution component market.

Key Developments

- Key providers of power distribution components, such as ABB Ltd., Siemens, Eaton, and Mitsubishi Electric Corporation are focusing on designing of smart and cost-effective power distribution components to attract more customers. Major developments in the global power distribution component market are highlighted below:
- In November 2018, ABB Ltd. launched the world's first dry-type (oil free) digital transformer, the ABB Ability TXpert Dry, and another innovative product called TXpand at its ABB Customer World (ACW) event in Xiamen, China
- In April 2019, Siemens launched Sensgear and Sensformer. These new digital switchgears are part of the digitally connected transformer portfolio of the company. Gas-insulated switchgear, circuit breakers, surge arresters, disconnectors, instrument transformers, and coil products would be equipped with the Sensgear technology.
- In June 2020, Eaton announced its agreement to purchase a new facility in Hodges, South Carolina, thus establishing a new home for its busway product line currently spanning three facilities across Greenwood County. The investment in the new facility is expected to consolidate operations to one location to support accelerated growth of the comprehensive portfolio of power distribution and control equipment solutions used in hospitals, data centers, factories, and commercial, residential, and industrial facilities.

- In October 2019, Mitsubishi Electric Corporation started construction of a new plant in Gujarat, India. The new plant is likely to enable the company to expand its output of products such as motor-control units for electric power steering, exhaust gas recirculation valves, and giant magnet-resistance sensors.
- In the global power distribution component market report, we have discussed individual strategies, followed by company profiles of providers of hall-effect sensor systems. The ‘Competition Landscape’ section has been included in the global power distribution component market report to provide readers with a dashboard view and company market share analysis of key players operating in the power distribution component market.

Indian Power And Distribution Industry

Electricity distribution companies (DISCOMs) are the backbone of the country’s power sector. Their poor financial health can have a ripple effect on the efficient functioning of the electricity generation and transmission sector. For India’s growth momentum to stay intact, the efficient functioning of all three is crucial.

India is on a path of strong economic growth. According to International Monetary Fund (IMF) estimates, its gross domestic product (GDP) could grow by 6.3% in the fiscal year (FY) 2025. The Central Electricity Authority’s (CEA) Optimal Generation Mix report for 2029-30 projects a peak electricity demand of 334.8 gigawatts (GW) and electrical energy requirement of 2,279.7 billion units (BU) for 2029-30. To meet this demand, India needs to add 777.1GW of capacity, including 251.7GW of coal and lignite, 292.7GW of solar photovoltaic, 99.9GW of wind and 53.8GW of hydro.

Given the uncertainty around DISCOMs being able to effectively cater to demand, Indian consumers, especially commercial and industrial (C&I), installed 77GW of captive installed capacity as of June 2022. Further, most residential consumers have backup power, which either runs on battery or diesel, adding to carbon emissions. In rural areas, people stack fuel like kerosene, solar home systems and solar pumps, in addition to the grid, to deal with erratic power supply.

The political economy is critical in determining the electricity tariff, with most states providing subsidies to agricultural and residential consumers. However, these subsidies are poorly targeted, adding to the financial woes of DISCOMs. As on 31 March 2021, DISCOMs had accumulated a deficit of Rs5,166 billion (US$62.6 billion).

Government initiatives

Over the years, the government has bailed out DISCOMs numerous times, but the impact on their financial health has been limited due to other deep-rooted problems such as inefficient tariff setting processes, delay in subsidy reimbursements, billing and collection inefficiencies, and poorly targeted subsidies. In the last couple of years, the government has announced several measures to instill financial discipline in DISCOMs – improved cash flows, a streamlined accounting process, differential time-based tariffs, strengthened demand projections and penalties on the non-timely disbursement of subsidies.

The recent amendment to the Electricity (Second Amendment) Rule 2023 aims to improve subsidy payments to DISCOMs by streamlining the accounting, reporting, and billing processes. The amendment mandates that regulatory commissions must hike tariffs if state governments do not reimburse subsidies on time. By implementing a carrot-and-stick approach, the government hopes to ensure timely and transparent subsidy disbursements. Moreover, the government’s decision to implement Time of Day (ToD) tariffs for C&I consumers from 2024 onwards and smart prepaid meters’ installation will not only ease the strain on the grid during peak hours but also encourage responsible electricity consumption patterns and optimize costs. Shifting the power demand from evening to daytime can help reduce tariffs by tapping into solar power, and such measures can promote greater deployment of clean energy.

With the help of the July 2023 CEA guidelines on power demand projections, DISCOMs can plan and optimize their operations, resulting in reduced losses and improved efficiency.

The implementation of all the above initiatives at the state level can help enhance transparency, efficiency, and financial viability in the power sector. It could also attract investments for state-level power sector reforms.

The finance ministry has earmarked Rs1.4 trillion (US$17.3 billion) under additional borrowings in FY24 for states to undertake power sector reforms. This additional financial window depends on states implementing specific reforms, including transparency in the reporting of financials, timely rendition of financial/energy accounts and auditing, providing subsidies through direct benefit transfer (DBT) to consumers and achieving targets for reduction in Aggregate Technical and Commercial (AT&C) losses. States that privatize DISCOMs can borrow more.

Positive impact of reforms

These government initiatives are already creating a positive impact. The total outstanding dues of states to generation companies (GENCOs), which stood at Rs 1,205 billion (US$14.6 billion) on 3 June 2022, reduced to Rs610 billion (US$7.4 billion) on 24 July 2023. DISCOMs also started paying their dues in time to avoid penalties after the enactment of the Electricity (Late Payment Surcharge and Related Matters) Rules, 2022. IEEFA's States' Electricity Transition (SET) report shows considerable improvement by states in reducing their total overdue amount/owed payment ratio.

Another positive impact of the reforms has been the decline in AT&C losses. AT&C losses reduced from 23.7% in FY16 to 17% in FY21. Currently, India stands at 15.8%, according to the Ujjwal DISCOM Assurance Yojana (UDAY) dashboard. The government aims to further reduce losses by improving the billing and collection ratio by installing 25 crore smart prepaid meters for domestic consumers under the Revamped Distribution Sector Scheme (RDSS). Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, and Gujarat installed 100% of their sanctioned smart meters as of September 2022 under the National Smart Grid Mission.

These developments highlight the effectiveness of the government's initiatives in creating a stable and reliable power sector. Increased competition through carriage and content separation, as well as DISCOM privatization, can further boost the distribution sector. Regulatory discipline, such as cost-reflective tariffs, cross-subsidization reduction, regulatory asset management and subsidy delivery, need additional attention at the state level. States should also accelerate deploying energy-efficient technologies, smart grid solutions and digitization solutions to optimize demand and boost revenue collection.

Global Transformer And Distribution Industry

A distribution transformer, also known as a service transformer, steps down the voltage utilized in the distribution of electricity as the last voltage transition in the system. The term "transformer" refers to a piece of equipment that converts electrical energy from one alternating-current circuit to one or more other circuits by either raising (stepping up) or lowering (stepping down) the voltage. To run low-voltage devices like doorbells and toy electric trains as well as to raise the voltage from electric generators so that electric power may be delivered over great distances, transformers are used for a broad variety of functions. The final voltage transformation in the electric power distribution system is provided by a distribution transformer or service transformer, which steps down the voltage in the distribution lines to the level utilized by the customer.

Typically, distribution transformers don't work at full load; instead, they operate most effectively at lower loads. Additionally, to increase efficiency, voltage regulation is minimized in these transformers. As a result, distribution transformers are made with a low leakage reactance. Distribution transformers are typically used to describe transformers with capacities under 500 kVA. 380V/220V distribution transformers are utilized for home uses, while distribution transformers with voltage distribution less than 33 kV are employed in the industry. Depending on the total number of consumers in an area, different distribution transformers can serve different numbers of customers.

Distribution Transformer Market Driver

High tension electrical networks are now necessary due to the rising energy demand among many remote load centers, which has also prompted the outside installation of distribution transformer systems. The benefits of outdoor installations, including quick setup and simple fault finding, have influenced consumer demand for products in recent years. The further retrofitting of grid systems in the suburbs and initiatives to enhance cross-border networks will also encourage product adoption.

The growing penetration of huge transformers, which need dependable earthing arrangements and a solid foundation, will drive the significant growth of the distribution transformer market for pad mounting. The popularity of mounting systems in recent years has been aided by considerations like better safety, decreased land requirements, affordable installation costs, and improved aesthetics. Additionally, due to worldwide demand, there is widespread applicability across utilities and significant sectors.

Distribution Transformer Market Restraint

The market for making transformers is significantly constrained by the volatility of raw material prices. The price fluctuations of crude oil, steel, and copper as raw materials are to blame for the instability. Transformers are primarily constructed out of steel and copper. The Distribution Transformer market for medium power transformers has been constrained by higher tariffs on raw materials like steel and copper that have increased price volatility. For instance, the USA administration planned to increase duties on imports of derivative steel and aluminum by 25% and 10%, respectively. Price increases result in higher operating costs, which slows the Distribution Transformer market expansion.

Key Market Trends

The market for transformers is evolving toward the development of autonomous, self-contained smart transformers. Smart transformers have been programmed to continuously control voltage, stay in touch with all parties involved, and provide data and feedback on the power supply. Through a procedure known as voltage optimization, they deliver the precise amount of electricity required and react to fluctuations. They provide electrical equipment with the right quantity of power, which greatly lowers greenhouse gas emissions and energy use. The National Research Foundation of Singapore and the Energy Research Institute will work together to accelerate breakthroughs in Solid State Transformer (SST) technology. The project is a component of Singapore's Energy Grid 2.0 effort, which combines various energy sources into a single intelligent network that is more effective, sustainable, and robust to shape the next-generation grid system and transform energy management.

Indian Transformer And Distribution Industry

Distribution Transformers play a very important and vital role in delivering electricity to the last mile. It can be rightly said that the Distribution industry is bringing light in the life of the people. The thrust by the Indian Government to provide quality power to each village and every household through various schemes of electrification like DDUGJY/ IPDS/ RAPDRP/ Saubhagya has given a huge fillip to the demand of distribution transformers all over India.

The demand of Distribution transformers is catered majorly by the domestic Industry and the import of transformers is very marginal/ project specific. The Industry is dominated by unorganized MSME units which are spread all over India and are mainly supplying to their state utilities. There are large scale units also which apart from having Pan India presence are also engaged in export of transformers.

The transformers produced in India have been brought under mandatory BIS certification, resulting in standardization of the product, which has resulted in improvement of quality and reduction of failure of transformers. The distribution transformers have also been brought under mandatory BEE star labelling scheme which has resulted in the use of modern technology in manufacturing energy efficient transformers.

The demand of distribution transformers will keep on increasing due to increase in generation capacity of both conventional and non-renewable sources due to increase in per capita consumption of electricity and new avenues like electric vehicle charging stations etc. The demand will also increase due to replacement of old transformers with energy efficient transformers.

The challenges faced by the industry is the lack of mandatory guidelines for installation and maintenance of transformers, bad earthing practices, overloading of transformers, tampering/ bypassing the protection equipment, theft of material/ oil which leads to fire and failure of transformers. The payment position by the utilities, though has improved due to UDAY scheme and MSMED act, needs to be further streamlined.

Our production facilities emphasize on processing and manufacturing electrical steel cores to meet the quality standards of power and distribution transformers. Our current facilities are well equipped to serve customer manufacturing transformers up to 220 kV class. Further, we have used 83% of our installed capacity as on March 31, 2024.

Presently, our Company’s main focus is on supplying CRGO electrical steel cores to transformer manufacturers. These materials necessitate a high level of expertise in manufacturing, handling, and processing due to their sensitivity to physical stresses and jerks, which is vital for ensuring the safety and quality of transformers. Adhering to strict quality requirements, all transformer core-related raw materials imported, purchased, and sold in India must conform to the standards set by the Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS).

Our clientele encompasses manufacturers producing transformers in the range of 11kV to 220 kV class, spanning Power and Distribution transformers. The quality of these transformers relies significantly on the raw materials used in their manufacturing, with the CRGO steel core accounting for 25-30% of the transformer’s total cost depending on the size of the transformer. Additionally, the core plays a crucial role in reducing transmission and distribution (T&D) losses within the electricity supply infrastructure, highlighting its pivotal significance in the realm of power distribution.

Manufacturing Process

1. Procurement of Raw Materials

CRGO and CRNGO Electrical Steel Mother Coils serve as the primary raw materials procured from a variety of BIS approved steel mills. CRGO Electrical steel, used for transformer cores, and CRNGO electrical steel, utilized in motors, generators, UPS, and inverters, play distinct roles in various electrical applications.

The acquisition of CRGO Steel mother Coils constitutes a significant portion of our raw material procurement. Our Company ensures a balanced mix purchase both domestic and import from China, and Europe and other countries for the sourced materials. This equilibrium considers factors such as quality, pricing, lead time, inventory levels, credit terms, and end-user approvals. Additionally, our purchasing decisions are influenced by the availability of grades from different mills. Each raw material coil used for domestic supplies meets the specifications set by the Bureau of Indian Standards of quality (IS 3024 and IS 648). Additionally, every batch of raw material is accompanied by a Mill Test Certificate (MTC) and other relevant documents, which can be provided upon customer request.

Procurement of raw materials occurs either directly from steel mills or through trading companies and stockists. We also engage in purchase from semi-processing manufacturers of CRGO steel. Transactions with mills and manufacturers typically occur on a monthly or quarterly basis, whereas dealings with traders and stockists are often conducted on a spot basis.

The raw materials are hereby elaboratively classified as follows:

a. Cold Rolled Grain Oriented Electrical Steel (CRGO):

Cold Rolled Grain Oriented electrical steel is available in a range of grades categorized by their thickness and intrinsic core loss, directly impacting the reduction of no-load loss in transformers, consequently diminishing T&D losses. Commercially, CRGO steel is predominantly offered in thicknesses of 0.23 mm, 0.27 mm, and 0.30 mm, primarily in the form of coils of sheets, each weighing between 3-5 metric tons. Often referred to as CRGO Silicon steel due to its high silicon content, its characteristics are influenced by composition impurities, grain size, grain orientation, and surface insulation. Even minor imperfections such as stresses, burrs, edge cambers, or bends can escalate core losses and magnetizing current substantially. Compared to other steels which are used in general applications (such as mild steel), CRGO steel is highly technical and difficult to produce, and it is used exclusively for transformer cores because of its characteristic of directional magnetism. Hence, it is much costlier and produced by very limited number of steel mills across the world.

Our facilities ensure proper handling and stress-free processing of the material, maintaining the integrity of intrinsic properties throughout. Each batch of CRGO coils undergoes rigorous testing to verify their electrical and physical properties. These samples are meticulously assessed in accordance with IS 649 standards for core loss, insulation resistivity, stacking factor, and bends, ensuring adherence to stringent quality benchmarks.

b. Cold-Rolled Non-Grain-Oriented Electrical Steel (CRNGO):

Cold-Rolled Non-Grain-Oriented steel is a vital material used in the manufacturing of electrical components, particularly in motors, generators, UPS, and inverters. Unlike its grain-oriented counterpart, CRNGO steel possesses uniform magnetic properties in all directions and is much cheaper but costlier than general applications mild steel, making it ideal for applications where directional magnetism is not necessary. CRNGO steel is available in various thicknesses and conforms to industry standards to ensure quality and reliability in electrical applications. Its widespread use underscores its importance in enabling the efficient functioning of electrical systems worldwide.

The raw material undergoes further processing tailored to meet the specific requirements of our customers. Each order we fulfil is meticulously crafted according to the precise specifications provided by the customer; the majority of our clientele consists of transformer manufacturers. Transformer manufacturers design the core as per their transformer requirement and specifications of end customer. This design is shared to us along with design parameters for core manufacturing. As core manufacturers, we carefully evaluate these requirements and assess the feasibility of the design, considering various aspects such as dimensions, weight, electrical parameters, and sheet thickness.

We examine the electrical parameters and correlate them with the most optimal raw material grade to meet the desired specifications. Following this assessment, we negotiate and seek orders from the customer. Each order is custom-made as per customers' core design and specifications.

Throughout the production process, measures are implemented to prevent stress, dents, bends, marks, defects, and burrs, as these imperfections could lead to air gaps between the stacked sheets of CRGO steel. Prudent handling of CRGO steel at each stage is paramount to preserving its physical quality and ensuring the integrity of its electrical and mechanical properties until it reaches the customer. It has been observed that the product produced by the Company is fragile and costly, requiring protection from dust, moisture, and other environmental factors. To address this, the Company employs specialized packing material to safeguard the product during storage and transportation.

2. Sample Testing

Epstein Bridge tester for testing Core loss of CRGO and CRNGO Electrical steel

Franklin tester for testing surface insulation resistivity of CRGO Electrical steel

Sample testing of received raw material is conducted by extracting a sample and subjecting it to various tests in accordance with IS:3024 (CRGO steel specifications), IS:648 (CRNGO steel specifications), and IS:649 standards prescribed by the Bureau of Indian Standards. For each batch of CRGO / CRNGO coils received, samples are meticulously examined to assess their electrical and mechanical properties. These samples undergo testing as per IS:649 standards to evaluate core loss, insulation resistance, stacking factor, and bends.

At our Unit - I facility, we have an in-house laboratory dedicated for testing of the mechanical and electrical properties of raw materials. Adhering to the guidelines set forth by the Bureau of Indian Standards, specifically IS:3024, IS:648, and IS:649 applicable to CRGO and CRNGO steel, we ensure meticulous examination and evaluation of our raw materials.

Upon the arrival of raw materials, samples are meticulously drawn from the coils in accordance with Indian Standards (IS) protocols. These samples are promptly transferred to our laboratory for testing. Once received, our Quality Control Associates conduct thorough tests on the samples using the relevant equipment, meticulously following the procedures outlined in the IS guidelines. The tested parameters are then compared with the specifications detailed in the mill test certificate issued by the supplier mill, ensuring the conformity and quality of our raw materials. This ensures adherence to stringent quality standards and guarantees the reliability and performance of our products in diverse electrical applications.

3. Slitting

Semi-automatic Slitting line

CRGO and CRNGO steel mother coils undergo processing through slitting to be transformed into slit coils. This operation is carried out utilizing high-speed semi-automatic slitting machines. These machines are renowned for their capability to divide coils precisely and accurately into smaller widths. The maximum coil width is 1250 mm, and we can produce slit coils ranging from 20 mm to 600 mm in width, tailored to meet the specific requirements of our customers.

Processing of CRGO and CRNGO steel demands a high level of expertise. To ensure optimal results, Tungsten carbide blades are employed to minimize burrs and edge camber, while the material itself is handled with the utmost care to preserve its electrical and mechanical properties. The slit coils thus produced are then made available for the production of cut laminations.

4. Cutting

Manual Cutting (shearing)

Automatic CNC Cut-to-length line (up to 870 mm width)

Automatic CNC Cut-to-length machine (up to 440 mm width)

After the slitting process of mother coils, further processing involves cutting. Cutting can be carried out either manually or with the assistance of automatic CNC Cut-to-length machines. These machines are utilized to shear and punch sheets lengthwise, forming stacks of sheets into the required shape as per customer design. Similar to the slitting process, cutting demands the use of sharp Tungsten carbide blades to ensure precise cutting without burrs, bends, or rough edges. Our in-house tooling division is responsible for frequently sharpening and grinding the blades to maintain consistent quality in both slitting and cutting operations.

The cutting of CRGO steel slit coils is conducted to produce cut laminations, while the cutting of CRNGO steel slit coils is for producing E & I stampings.

Cut laminations

EI Stamping

Some of the specifications involved in the cutting process include the option for mitred and non-mitred cutting, with a width range spanning from 30 to 870 mm. Tungsten carbide cutters are employed to minimize burrs and ensure precise cutting.

5. Assembly

Assembly involves a manual labor-intensive process of stacking cut lamination sheets atop each other and securely clamping them using channels, bolts, and insulation material to form an assembled core. These channels are fabricated in-house from mild steel shapes and sections purchased from local steel suppliers, strictly adhering to the customer's transformer design specifications. After passing all quality checks, assembled cores are sold to transformer manufacturers. Precision and skill are paramount during assembly to ensure proper handling and stacking, minimizing air gaps, and optimizing core performance.

6. Quality Control

Our Company holds ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015, and ISO 45001:2018, certifications, indicating our dedication to quality management. Our commitment to quality spans every stage, from procurement to dispatch. A dedicated quality control team ensures adherence to manufacturing standards, supported by an in-house laboratory that upholds quality benchmarks of the material. Prior to commencing the manufacturing process, materials undergo rigorous quality checks to ensure they meet specified standards. Finished products undergo thorough testing by our in-house team to verify conformity to customer specifications. To streamline the process and achieve self-certification norms, products are meticulously packed and dispatched once they meet relevant standards and designs as specified by the customer.

7. Final Testing

Prior to dispatch, various mechanical parameters such as length, width, burr level, stack height, thickness, surface insulation coating, and edge camber are meticulously checked. No-Load Losses are tested for assembled cores, and a sample core is assembled in-house to test the Cut Laminations. Final testing of assembled cores is conducted to verify electrical parameters, ensuring compliance with customer requirements. Our in-house laboratory conducts all quality checks according to major international and Indian standards, providing comprehensive reports as proof of compliance. Customer and end-user inspections further ensure complete satisfaction.

8. Packaging

Packaging is a critical aspect of the manufacturing process, aimed at preventing transit damage for both domestic and international customers. Rigorous packing SOPs are implemented to safeguard fragile and costly finished goods from dust, moisture, and other environmental factors. Recognizing the material's susceptibility to damage from jerks and sudden movements, each dispatch lot is meticulously secured and sealed in trucks or containers to mitigate the risk of transit damage. Finished goods are placed on custom-sized wooden pallets and shipped in full-load trucks or containers to ensure secure transit. We produce these custom-sized pallets in-house to guarantee the quality and safety of the final product. Customers can purchase finished goods, including slit coils, cut laminations, and assembled cores, at various stages of production, with slitting producing slit coils, cutting producing cut laminations, and assembly producing assembled cores.

Competition

Quality of CRGO and CRNGO steel in India is regulated by the Bureau of Indian Standards through the Ministry of Steel Quality control orders (QCO). Before the implementation of the Quality Control Order (QCO) in 2012, CRGO steel market was characterized by extreme fragmentation, with numerous spurious and unorganized players operating within it. Since the introduction of the BIS QCO, the market has witnessed a significant consolidation trend, with fewer players dominating the scene, a trend that continues to evolve.

Presently, there are multiple CRGO core manufacturing companies recognized and certified by the BIS in India. While the majority of these manufacturers focus solely on producing distribution transformer cores, a select few specialize in power transformer cores. The latter requires substantial investments in plant and machinery, maintaining larger inventory levels, obtaining end-user approvals, and possessing extensive experience in handling such high-value products. These organized players effectively cater to the nation's demand for transformer cores, particularly in the 220 kV, 400 kV, and 765 kV classes, where consistent quality suppliers are scarce.

Our company possesses the capacity, facility, and capability of producing transformer cores up to 220 kV class. Additionally, we continually pursue opportunities to enhance our operational efficiencies. This entails optimizing our manufacturing processes, streamlining our supply chain, and harnessing technology to boost productivity. By bolstering our efficiency levels, we aim to fortify our market position further and solidify our standing in the industry.

They also engage in marketing activities such as market research, information gathering, participating in exhibitions, conducting customer visits. Sales agents assist the Sales team in both Sales and Customer support by being in close proximity with the customers.

Business Strategies

1. Focus on increasing our market share by expanding our manufacturing capacity at Unit-II

We intend to continue to focus on expanding manufacturing capacity at our Unit-II facility at Greater Noida which has a total area of 8,066 sq. m. In line with our expansion plans, Company has completed the construction of a new shed spanning 2,000 sq. m within the same premises. This expansion will accommodate for new machinery, enabling the Company to diversify into untapped customer segments, explore new geographical markets, and introduce a new product line.

As on March 31, 2024, our Company has invested ₹431.00 Lakhs through internal accruals. For details, kindly refer the “Risk Factor 4 - If there are delays or if the costs of setting up and the possible time or cost overruns related to the expansion of the Unit-II or the purchase of plant and machinery for the said Unit-II are higher than expected, it could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations and growth prospects,” on page 30 of this Prospectus.

In addition to the intended expansion, our Unit-II facility has adequate vacant land allowing us to further expand our capacity to meet the expected increase in demand. We have already established the necessary infrastructure, including offices, administrative buildings and supply chain linkage and we believe that any further expansion will incur limited cost increase to our existing infrastructure setup.

Also see, “Risk Factors 6 – Information relating to capacity utilization of our manufacturing facilities included in this Draft Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates. Under-utilization of capacity of our manufacturing facilities and an inability to effectively utilize our manufacturing facilities may have an adverse effect on our business and future financial performance.” on page 31 of this Prospectus.

2. Targeting new products and customer segments

With our current operational infrastructure, we have the capability to manufacture CRGO steel cores for transformers in the range of 11 kV class to 220 kV class. By adding new machinery into our production setup, we aim to tap into new market segments, particularly for transformers in 400 kV and 765 kV class. Given the scarcity of consistent suppliers in these higher voltage class of transformers, this strategic expansion presents a substantial opportunity to not only escalate our production volume but also enhance profit margins.

We also aim to expand our sales by increasing our export footprint, by targeting higher value-added products and more stringent quality standards for the export market. Our new facility will be sufficient to attract quality conscious export clientele, and we are currently increasing our sales network overseas.

Illustration of Transmission and Distribution of Electricity through Power and Distribution transformers

Furthermore, our expansion initiative will also cater to the customers seeking amorphous metal cores in the 11 kV transformer class. Amorphous metal cores are essentially a substitute of CRGO cores in Distribution transformers which require a different set of machinery for manufacturing. By diversifying and broadening our product portfolio, we anticipate an enlargement of our customer base, subsequently leading to a proportional increase in revenue generation.

Transformer Segment	Core Type	Rating range	Voltage Class range	Application stage
Extra-large Power	CRGO Steel	200 MVA - 500 MVA	400 kV, 765 kV	Power Generation level
Large Power	CRGO Steel	16 MVA - 160 MVA	66 kV, 132 kV, 220 kV	National & State grid level
Medium Power	CRGO Steel	1 MVA - 12.5 MVA	33 kV, 66 kV	District & Intercity level
Distribution	CRGO Steel	5 kVA - 800 kVA	11 kV	Power Consumption level
	Amorphous Metal

Note: The above table is based on broad classification by the management for internal use and it may vary from data available on other sources as Transformer segments may overlap.

Pricing

We determine the prices for our products based on various parameters, including market demand, transportation costs, supply costs, inventory levels, credit terms. Our pricing decisions are made after considering the costs associated with product development, manufacturing, materials, labor, overhead, and other relevant expenses.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis.

2. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Indian GAAP requires the management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods.

Depreciation on Fixed Assets is provided to the extent of depreciable amount on the Written down Value (WDV) Method. The carrying amount of assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date if there is any indication of impairment based on internal or external factors. An impairment loss is recognised wherever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the assets, net selling price and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and risks specific to the asset. Business Overview

Established in 1988, Jay Bee Laminations Limited, currently manufactures and supplies range of products such as electrical laminations, slit coils, and assembled cores made of Cold Rolled Grain Oriented Silicon steel and Cold-Rolled Non-Grain-Oriented Steel for applications in transformers, UPS, and inverters, for end-use in power industry.

Our Company's manufacturing units are equipped with all in-house facilities for slitting, cutting, assembling, and testing of CRGO and CRNGO electrical steel cores spread across total area of 10,878 sq mt. We also have our in-house laboratory for raw material and finished goods sample testing and in-house tooling division for blade sharpening. Our production facilities emphasize on processing and manufacturing electrical steel cores to meet the quality standards of power and distribution transformers. Our current facilities are well equipped to serve customers manufacturing transformers up to 220 kV class. Additionally, we have used 83% of our capacity, as on March 31, 2024.

Presently, our Company's main focus is on supplying CRGO electrical steel cores solely to transformer manufacturers. These materials necessitate a high level of expertise in manufacturing, handling, and processing due to their sensitivity to physical stresses and jerks, which is vital for ensuring the safety and quality of transformers. Adhering to strict quality requirements, all transformer core-related raw materials imported, purchased, and sold in India must conform to the standards set by the Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS).

Our clientele encompasses manufacturers producing Power and Distribution transformers in the range of 11kV to 220 kV class. The quality of these transformers relies significantly on the raw materials used in their manufacturing, with the core accounting for 25-30% of the transformer's total cost depending on the size of the transformer. Additionally, the core plays a crucial role in reducing transmission and distribution (T&D) losses within the electricity supply infrastructure, highlighting its pivotal significance in the realm of power distribution.

Significant Developments After March 31, 2024

In the opinion of the Board of Directors of our Company, since March 31, 2024, there have not arisen any circumstance that materially or adversely affect or are likely to affect the profitability of our Company or the value of its assets or its ability to pay its material liabilities within the next twelve months.

Factors Affecting Our Results Of Operations

Our financial performance and results of operations are influenced by a number of important factors, some of which are beyond our control, including without limitation, intense global and domestic competition, general economic conditions, changes in conditions in the regional markets in which we operate, changes in costs of raw materials and supplies, COVID-19-related effects on global and domestic economic conditions, and evolving government regulations and policies. Some of the more important factors are discussed below, as well as in the section titled “Risk Factors” on page 27 beginning of this Prospectus.

Our Company's future results of operations could be affected potentially by the following factors:

Revenue generated from end use industry

Demand for our products is directly related to the production and sales of our end user industry.

Set out below are the revenues generated from various end-use industries and as a percentage of our revenue from sale of products:

Sectors	Restated Financial Information for the Financial Year Ended March 31
	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Total Revenue	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Total Revenue	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Total Revenue
Transformers	29,642	97.92%	24,194	98.12%	13,896	98.38%
Inverters/ UPS	32	0.11%	17	0.07%	0	0.00%
Others (Scrap etc)	598	1.98%	447	1.81%	229	1.62%
Total	30,272	100.00%	24,658	100.00%	14,125	100.00%

The production and sales of our end user industry for which we supply products are affected by a variety of other factors that are beyond our control, including changes in government policies, changes in consumer demand, product mix shifts favouring economic conditions, demographic trends, disruptions in these industries' supply chain, labour relations, regulatory requirements, credit availability and cost of credit and general economic and industry conditions Currency fluctuations, government procurement schemes for customers' products, government payments and policies.

It is difficult to forecast events which affect the profitability and liquidity of our customers or the success or sustainability of any strategies undertaken by any of our customers in response to ongoing economic or industry trends. Reduced demand in the industries we currently supply to, continued uncertainty and other unexpected fluctuations or change in regulations, customs, taxes or other barriers or restrictions adversely affecting the market, particularly those impacting our customers could have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Long-standing client relationships

We are dependent on certain of our key customers and the details of contribution of our top five and top 10 customers to our total revenue from operations Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, have been set out below.

Particulars of Suppliers	Restated Financial Information for the Financial Year Ended March 31
	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of total Purchase	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of total Purchase	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of total Purchase
Top 5	19,572.74	75.34%	14,007.45	74.19%	9,014.93	63.92%
Top 10	23,062.39	88.77%	17,884.92	94.73%	11,847.72	84.01%

Additionally, certain customers have high and stringent standards for product quantity and quality as well as delivery schedules. Any failure to meet our customers' expectations and specifications could result in the cancellation or non-renewal of purchase orders. There are also a number of factors, other than our performance that could cause the loss of a customer. Customers may demand, among others, price reductions, setoff any payment obligations, or replace their existing products with alternative products, any of which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Accordingly, we face the risk that our customers might not place any order or may even cancel existing orders or make change in their policies which may result in reduced quantities being manufactured by us for our customers. Cancellations, reductions or instructions to delay production or dispatch (thereby delaying delivery of products manufactured by us) by a significant customer could adversely affect our results of operations by reducing our sales volume, as well as by possibly causing delay in our customers' paying us for the order placed for purchasing the inventory with us which we would have manufactured for them. If we are not able to find customers or purchasers for the surplus or excess capacity, we would be forced to incur a loss.

Further, in the event our major customers face any form of adverse effect due to exigent circumstances, resulting in a sustained decline in the demand for their products, could prompt them to reduce their production volumes, in turn affecting their demand for our products. The volume and timing of sales to our major customers may also adversely vary due to variation in: (i) delay in or cancellation; (ii) demand or requirements; (iii) manufacturing strategy; and (iv) growth strategy. As we do not have firm commitment in the form of long-term supply agreements with our customers, there is no commitment on the part of our major customers to continue to place new purchase orders with us and as a result, our cash flow and consequent revenue may fluctuate significantly from time to time. Further, we may not be able to find any other customers for the surplus or excess capacity, in which case we may be forced to incur a loss.

In addition, we make significant decisions, including determining the levels of business that we will seek and accept, production schedules and other resource requirements, based on our estimates of customer orders. We make Raw material purchase plan and capacity utilization and manpower planning based on orders projections for 1-4 months. The changes in demand for their products (which are in turn manufactured by us) could reduce our ability to estimate accurately future customer requirements, make it difficult to schedule production and limit our ability to maximize utilization of our manufacturing capacity.

Additional factors that could significantly harm our customers as well as us, include:

- action undertaken by the government to tax our business, or that of our customers;
- recession in countries in which our key customers' operate their businesses;
- slowdown and reduced spending in the industries in which our customers operate;
- our customers' inability to effectively manage their operations;
- a change in their management which may results in us not being a preferred supplier to them; and
- changes in laws affecting our customers to operate profitably.

Raw Material Costs, Operating Costs and Operational Efficiencies

Our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects are significantly impacted by the prices of raw materials purchased by us. Our cost of raw materials consumed and change in Finished Goods and work in progress, Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, was ₹24,999.22 Lakhs, 20,722.14 Lakhs, and ₹11,300.99 Lakhs, respectively, which represented 82.53%, 84.01%, and 80.01% of our revenue from operations for the respective Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022. Our financial condition and results of operations are significantly impacted by the availability and costs of raw materials. Raw material pricing can be volatile due to a number of factors beyond our control, including global demand and supply, general economic and political conditions, transportation and labour costs, labour unrest, natural disasters, competition, import duties, fuel prices and availability, power tariffs and currency exchange rates. This volatility in commodity prices can significantly affect our raw material costs. Further, our contracts with our customers generally provide for pass through of any variation in the raw material costs. However, our cash flows may still be adversely affected because of any gap in time between the date of procurement of those primary raw materials and date on which we can reset the product prices for our customers, to account for the increase in the prices of such raw materials.

Our ability to manage our operating costs and operations efficiencies is critical to maintaining our competitiveness and profitability. Our profitability is partially dependent on our ability to increase our productivity and reduce our operating expenses.

Availability of funds for capital expenditure

We continuously invest in machinery and equipment to expand our machining capacity to seize opportunities for growth in the market. The actual amount and timing of our future capital expenditure may deviate from initial estimates due to various factors. These factors include unforeseen delays or cost overruns, unanticipated expenses, regulatory changes, economic conditions, engineering design changes, technological advancements, and emerging market developments.

Long Term relation with Suppliers

Our results of operations depend upon our ability to obtain quality raw materials required for our products and other inputs regularly, at low prices and favourable terms. For timely supply of raw materials, we have to depend on certain third-party suppliers with whom we do not have any exclusive arrangements. Our inability to procure these raw materials on terms more favourable, or at all, may constrain our raw material supply, resulting in an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. As a result, the success of our business is significantly dependent on maintaining good relationships with our raw material suppliers. Absence of long-term supply contracts subject us to risks such as price volatility caused by various factors such as commodity market fluctuations, currency fluctuations, production and transportation cost, changes in domestic as well as international government policies, and regulatory and trade sanctions. In addition, we import certain raw materials for CRGO steel coils and CRNGO steel coils. We are also susceptible to the risks arising out of raw material price fluctuations as well as import duties, which could result in a decline in our operating margins.

Further, our operations and performance are directly related to and affected by the cost of various inputs including raw materials such as CRGO steel coils and CRNGO steel coils, power, and fuel, packing material, and freight and forwarding costs. Besides CRGO and CRNGO steel, we use packing material such as wood, polythene, plastic straps, and metal straps. Mild steel (MS) prices may affect the overall cost of assembled cores. If we cannot fully offset increases in raw material prices with increases in the prices for our products, we will experience lower margins, which will have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows. Similarly, we also face a risk of facing loss on inventory if raw material prices decrease thereby affecting our operating margins. In the absence of such contracts, we are also exposed to the risk of unavailability of certain raw materials in desired quantities and qualities, in a timely manner or at all.

In the last Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022, other than the non-availability of raw material on account of COVID-19 from certain vendors who were unable to transport raw materials to us, we have not faced any issues with our suppliers. We have faced shortage of raw material due to shipping and logistics issues.

The table below sets forth share in our cost of raw materials from our top 5 and top 10 suppliers in the periods/years indicated:

Particulars of Suppliers	Restated Financial Information for the Financial Year Ended March 31

The table below sets forth our cost of raw materials and change in stock of finished goods and work in progress as a percentage of our revenue from operations in the periods/years indicated:

	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations
Cost of raw materials and change in stock of finished goods and work in progress	24,999.21	82.53%	20,722.14	84.01%	11,300.99	80.01%

There can be no assurance that a particular supplier will continue to supply us with raw materials in the future. Further, we cannot assure you that we will be able to enter into new or renew our existing arrangements with suppliers on terms acceptable to us, which could have an adverse effect on our ability to source raw materials in a commercially viable and timely manner, if at all, which may impact our business and profitability.

In addition, as we generally have short-term arrangements for supply of our products to our business associates, non-availability of required raw materials or any other item of production in desired quantity and quality at the appropriate time, it may impact the production and sale of our products, which may consequently have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Dependency on third-party transportation providers

Our success depends on the supply of various raw materials required for our manufacturing facilities and transport of our finished products from our manufacturing facilities to our clients', which are subject to various uncertainties and risks. We depend on various forms of transportation to either receive raw materials for our manufacturing purposes or to deliver the products to our clients, including for certain export sales. For these purposes, we typically rely on third-party transportation and logistics providers. We do not enter into agreements with transportation providers for the delivery of our products and are therefore dependent on transportation and logistics companies that we engage with. Although we have not encountered any significant disruption to the supply and transportation of raw materials and products in the past, the operating restrictions/ lockdown consequent to the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic temporarily affected our ability to procure raw materials and supply and transport of our finished products in the first quarter of Fiscal 2021. Any transport strikes and blockages on national highways such as farmers strikes can affect our transport of raw material and finished goods. There can be no assurance that any such disruption will not occur in the future as a result of these factors and that such disruptions will not be material.

The disruption of transportation services due to natural factors such as weather conditions particularly during monsoon or flood seasons, or man-made factors such as strikes, accidents, or other inadequacies in the transportation infrastructure, or any other factor that could impair the ability of our suppliers to deliver raw materials to us and our ability to deliver our products to our business associates and their ability to deliver products to the end retailer in a timely manner, which may adversely affect the sale of our glass products. Such raw materials and our products may get damaged, deteriorated, due to improper handling, negligence, transport strike or accidents, or any other force majeure events which may not be within our control. Further, the cost of our goods carried by such third-party transporters is typically much higher than the consideration paid for transportation, due to which it may be difficult for us to recover compensation for damaged, delayed, or lost goods. Additionally, if we lose one or more of our third-party transportation providers, there can be no assurance that we will be able to find new or alternative third-party transportation providers at all, or at terms as favourable as those which we have been in force with our current third-party transportation providers.

Further, our third-party transportation providers may not carry adequate insurance coverage and therefore, any losses that may arise during the transportation process may have to be claimed under our insurance policy, or marine insurance policy. There can be no assurance that we will receive compensation for any such claims in full amount in a timely manner or at all, and consequently, any such loss may adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations. In addition, transportation costs have been steadily increasing. Any significant disruption in the distribution network could have an impact on our business and the results of operations.

Restrictions in import of raw materials

We currently import CRGO steel and CRNGO steel from China, Poland, USA, UAE, Japan, Germany, Czech Republic to manufacture our electrical steel products. Raw material imports are regulated by certain specific laws and regulations that permit concerned authorities to stop any import if it is deemed that the products proposed to be imported may cause major accidents or similar adverse incidents. While raw materials we import from foreign countries are not restricted, we cannot assure you that such regulations will not be made applicable to us, or that such regulations will not evolve into more stringent regulations, which would place onerous requirements on us and consequently restrict our ability to import raw materials.

In the event we are unable to import these materials, there can be no assurance that we will be successful in identifying alternate suppliers for raw materials or we will be able to source the raw materials at favourable terms in a timely manner or at all. Further, the supplier mills cannot supply to India unless they are authorized with BIS license. In an event where mill's license is not renewed or deferred or cancelled, we are unable to procure raw material.

Fluctuation in Foreign Exchange

Since our imported raw material cost is not substantial compared to our overall cost of raw material, any foreign currency fluctuation in the ordinary course will not have a material impact on the cost of raw materials for us.

A small portion of our total revenues is denominated in currencies other than Indian Rupees. The table below sets forth details of our export sales in the periods indicated:

	2024		2023		2022
	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in Lakhs)	% of Revenue from operations
Exports (Excluding SEZ Sales)	4,041.77	13.34%	3,461.90	14.03%	2,038.84	14.43%

Further, we also import certain equipment for our machinery. As on date, we have not undertaken any hedging transactions. As there is no hedging transaction, 100% Import Outstanding can be considered as unhedged. As on March 31, 2024, the Import Trade Payable was Nil. In addition, the policies of the RBI may also change from time to time, which may limit our ability to effectively hedge our foreign currency exposures and may have an effect on our results of operations and cash flows.

Government Regulations and Policies

Government regulations and policies in India can affect the demand of our products.

The production and sales of our end user industry for which we supply products are affected by a variety of other factors that are beyond our control, including changes in government policies, changes in consumer demand, product mix shifts favouring economic conditions, demographic trends, disruptions in these industries' supply chain, labour relations, regulatory requirements, credit availability and cost of credit and general economic and industry conditions Currency fluctuations, government procurement schemes for customers' products, government payments and policies.

Further, in recent years, the Government of India has taken measures to control inflation, which included tightening the monetary policy by raising interest rates. As such, any increase in interest rates may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.

Similarly, changes in laws may require additional compliances and/or result in us incurring additional expenditure. For instance, the Government of India has notified four labour codes which are yet to come into force as of the date of this Prospectus, namely, (i) the Code on Wages, 2019, (ii) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020; (iii) the Code on Social Security, 2020; and (iv) the Occupational Safety, Health, and Working Conditions Code, 2020. Such codes will replace the existing legal framework governing rights of workers and labour relations. Once these codes are in force, we may be required to incur additional expenditure to ensure compliance with them. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations, and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation, or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent, may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

Our manufacturing facilities

As of the date of this Prospectus, we currently operate two manufacturing facilities located at Noida & Greater Noida, with commercial production of CRGO & CRNGO steel cores with applications in transformers, UPS & inverters.

Any disruption in our manufacturing operations involving the shutdown of our plant in any of our manufacturing facilities resulting from any factors beyond our control, including socio-economic, regulatory, policy or political developments, force majeure, natural calamities, or civil disruption, could result in a material adverse impact on our business operations and financial performance, particularly due to the long period of time required for rebuilding to resume production. Further, there can be no assurance that equipment in our manufacturing facilities will not malfunction, resulting in discontinuation of production. Any malfunction or shutdown of any of the plant would adversely impact production and could result in us incurring significant losses from shutdown of operations, capital expenditure to replace any malfunctioning furnace or other equipment, and thereby materially and adversely affecting our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

The table below provides our actual production and capacity utilization for the Financial Years ended March 31, 2024, March 31, 2023, and March 31, 2022:

Particulars	For the Fiscal Years ended March 31
	2024		2023		2022
	Actual Production (Metric Tons per annum)	Capacity Utilization (%) *	Actual Production (Metric Tons per annum)	Capacity Utilization (%) *	Actual Production (Metric Tons per annum)	Capacity Utilization (%) *
Unit I	5,594	85.00%	4,491	68.00%	3,049	46.00%
Unit II	3,795	80.00%	2,917	61.00%	2,642	56.00%
Total Combined	9,389	83.00%	7,408	65.00%	5,691	51.00%

Our business is therefore dependent on our ability to ensure continued operations and production at optimal levels, which may be impacted by various operating risks, including industrial accidents, severe weather conditions, natural disasters, workforce productivity, regulatory developments and compliance, adequate and timely supply of raw materials, management of continuous operations, quality of products manufactured. Any significant malfunction or breakdown of our equipment may also entail significant repair and maintenance costs and cause delays in our operations. Further, we depend on third party suppliers of raw materials as well as equipment and services required for continuing operations. Our inability to effectively rectify any disruption, in a timely manner and at an acceptable cost, could lead to delays in the entire production cycle and an inability to comply with our clients' requirements, thereby adversely impacting our business operations and future financial performance.

Qualitative Disclosure about Market Risk

Financial Market Risks

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include loans, borrowings, term deposits, and investments.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

Effect of Inflation

We are affected by inflation as it has an impact on the raw material cost, wages, etc. In line with changing inflation rates, we're working our margins so as to absorb the inflationary impact.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. Credit risk arises principally from the group's receivables from deposits with landlords and other statutory deposits with regulatory agencies and also arises from cash held with banks and financial institutions. The maximum exposure to credit risk is equal to the carrying value of the financial assets. The objective of managing counterparty credit risk is to prevent losses in financial assets. The group assesses the credit quality of the counterparties, taking into account their financial position, past experience and other factors.

The group limits its exposure to credit risk of cash held with banks by dealing with highly rated banks and institutions and retaining sufficient balances in bank accounts required to meet a month's operational costs. The management reviews the bank accounts on regular basis and fund drawdowns are planned to ensure that there is minimal surplus cash in bank accounts. The group does a proper financial and credibility check on the landlords before taking any property on lease and hasn't had a single instance of non-refund of security deposit on vacating the leased property. The group also in some cases ensure that the notice period rentals are adjusted against the security deposits and only differential, if any, is paid out thereby further mitigating the non-realization risk. The group does not foresee any credit risks on deposits with regulatory authorities.

Customer credit risk is managed by each business unit subject to the group's established policy, procedures and control relating to customer credit risk management. Credit quality of a customer is assessed based on an extensive credit rating scorecard and individual credit limits are defined in accordance with this assessment. Outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored.

Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process:

Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue; it also excludes Bidding by Anchor Investors. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20.00/- to ₹24.00/- per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of 5 Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	₹24.00/-	500	16.67%
1,000	₹23.00/-	1,500	50.00%
1,500	₹22.00/-	3,000	100.00%
2,000	₹21.00/-	5,000	166.67%
2,500	₹20.00/-	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹22.00 in the above example. The Company in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager, may finalize the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹22.00/-. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The government bodies responsible for granting foreign investment approvals are the Reserve Bank of India ("RBI") and Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India ("DIPP").

The Government of India, from time to time, has made policy pronouncements on Foreign Direct Investment ("FDI") through press notes and press releases. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government. Furthermore, on April 22, 2020, the Ministry of Finance, Government of India has also made a similar amendment to the FEMA Rules. Pursuant to the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) (Fourth Amendment) Rules, 2020, a multilateral bank or fund, of which India is a member, shall not be treated as an entity of a particular country nor shall any country be treated as the beneficial owner of the investments of such bank of fund in India.
